On The Tropic Of Time Poems:

On the Tropic of Time Anthony Robbins,1995 Tropical Town and Other Poems Salom n de la Selva,1998-01-01 Poems by a late Nicaraguan writer In A Prayer for the United States he wrote Apocalyptic blasts are ravaging over sea With lure of flag and conquest the harlot War is wooing The horse John saw in Patmos its dread course is pursuing I pray the Lord He shelter the stars that shelter me Time and Nature in the Poetry of Niyi Osundare Chukwunwike Anolue,2024-08-02 This book provides an ecocritical analysis of the poetry of the famous Nigerian poet Niyi Osundare It interrogates the intricate interface between time and nature in 11 of Osundare s defining poetry collections This is a book of postcolonial ecocriticism from an African perspective It brings together the ecocritical theory of animism and theories of geologic time in the discussion of Osundare s poetry Osundare shows that animism has a lot to offer in enriching human understanding of the ecosystem And while he eloquently catalogues problems undermining the health of the earth in this age of the Anthropocene and the Capitalocene in his poetry he also holds on to the hope of a better future The book concludes that Osundare s optimism is what informs his use of poetry to press humankind to rise to the duty of salvaging the environment Deploying an interdisciplinary approach that stretches across the fields of literature religion geology physics economics and anthropology this book will be an important read for those looking for fresh ways to understand Osundare s poetry and African nature writing The Poetry of Life in Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2013-03-09 Poetry of life in literature and through literature and the vast territory in between as vast as human life itself where they interact and influence each other is the nerve of human existence Whether we are aware of it or not we are profoundly dissatisfied with the stark reality of life s swift progress onward and the enigmatic and irretrievable meaning of the past And so we dramatise our existence probing deeply for a lyrical and heartfelt yet universally valid sense of our experience It is in great works of literature that we seek those hidden springs that so move us It is in honour of this search that this collection focuses on the creative imagination at work in literature and aesthetics Indian Hours; Or Passion and Poetry of the Tropics Robert Nugent Dunbar,1839 Tropical Time Machines Emily A. Maguire,2024-06-18 Exploring works of science fiction originating from Spanish speaking parts of the Caribbean and their diasporas this book shows how writers filmmakers musicians and artists are using the language of the genre to comment on the region s history and present day realities The Principles of Agriculture, Especially Tropical, and of Organic Chemistry, Familiarly Treated Philip Lovell Phillips,1857 Time and Eternity. A poem George MACHENRY (Poetical Writer.),1871 On Tropical Grounds Francisco-J. Hernandez Adrian,2024-10-11 On Tropical Grounds develops a new approach to the avant garde and Surrealism in Caribbean and Atlantic studies The book examines how islands and their tropical associations figure in the cultural and political imaginaries of the Caribbean and the Atlantic and identifies genealogies of local responses to continental fantasies of exotic insularity Examining written and visual works that reflect on the Hispanic and Francophone Caribbean and the Canary Islands as well as critical debates around discourses of insularity in island and metropolitan spaces this book considers notions of ethnic purity originality imitation appropriation cosmopolitanism and self exoticism to challenge the idea that avant garde practices were pre eminently urban and metropolitan cultural forms The book argues that attention to the relational dimension implicit in exchanges around ideas of anticolonial struggle radical social transformation and anti fascist resistance should inform analyses of cultural production in Caribbean and Atlantic insular spaces On Tropical Grounds develops a persuasive critical model for the investigation of politically and aesthetically situated archipelagic relations that transgresses disciplinary boundaries and reconfigures our conception of the avant garde as a global movement that was overdetermined by racial gender and colonial conflicts This book will be of value to anyone interested in Caribbean and Atlantic studies avant garde and visual culture studies and literary and cultural studies

Irish Poetry W. J. McCormack, 2002-04 In this avowedly interpretative anthology of Irish verse W J McCormack traces creativity of contradiction through several centuries finding poets productively at odds with their forebears their contemporaries even with themselves From Yeats's tragic laughter to the quieter ironies of Seamus Heaney from the rambunctious narratives of Merriman and Joyce to the pathos of Wilde's Reading Gaol the same sparring spirit is found

Poetry, 1880 Modern Nicaraguan Poetry Steven F. White, 1993 This work demonstrates that twentieth century Nicaraguan poetry can not be comprehended in its fullest dimension without an understanding of the literary traditions of France and the United States Ever since Ruben Dario established Hispanic America's literary independence from Spain in the nineteenth century with his modernista revolution poets in Nicaragua actively have engaged in a dialogue with the works of French and North American authors as a means of assimilating and transforming them and thereby inventing a profoundly Nicaraguan literary identity This process has resulted in what might be called a double genealogy in Nicaraguan poetry certain poets attracted to the alchemical properties of the poetic word and a transcendent mythic meta reality seem to have descended from French literary forebears others interested in an expansive poeticized version of history and verisimilitude have roots that might be traced to North American soil This division is a provisional experimental means of grouping Nicaraguan poets based not on the traditional compartmentalization of literary generations but on the family resemblances of poetic affinities Presented here is an effective analysis of the familial nature of the Nicaraguan poets achieving their own literary independence by taking into account socio political and historical considerations common literary themes as well as the intertextual relations that form the basis of international literary dialogues This rigorous but flexible approach to modern Nicaraguan poetry enables the reader to accompany the poets on their journeys toward God and the end of the world into a timeless Nicaraguan landscape invaded by U S Marines beyond a contemporary urban portrait of Los Angeles through the horrifying European battlefields of World War I and the trenches of Nicaragua's revolution against the Somoza dictatorship The English speaking reader probably will be unfamiliar with most of the seven preeminent Nicaraguan poets whose works are the subject of this book but it is hoped that the reader will realize that the poetry of Nicaraguans Alfonso Cortes Salomon de la Selva Jose Coronel Urtecho Pablo Antonio Cuadra Joaquin Pasos Carlos Martinez Rivas and Ernesto Cardenal is worthy of serious study Furthermore the poems of these authors take on a richer meaning when they are studied as co presences in relation to certain texts by Baudelaire Rimbaud Mallarme and Supervielle or in an American context by poets such as Whitman Pound Eliot and Masters A relatively small country with a rich diverse tradition in poetry Nicaragua has maintained high literary standards generation after generation and has produced poets of a world class stature whose time has come for greater recognition The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, Harris Feinsod, David Marno, Alexandra Slessarev, 2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993 The Botanic Garden. A Poem, in Two Parts ... The First American Edition. [By E. Darwin, the Elder. With Plates.] Erasmus Darwin, 1798 Time and the Crystal Robert M. Durling, Ronald L. Martinez, 2024-06-28 The Rime petrose Dante's powerful lyrics about a woman as beautiful and as hard as a precious stone are generally acknowledged to be an important moment in his stylistic development In this full length investigation of the poetics of the petrose and of their relation to The Divine Comedy Robert M Durling and Ronald L Martinez uncover new material especially from medieval science astrology and mineralogy philosophy and theology The authors argue that the Rime petrose represent a major turning point in Dante's conception of a microcosmic poetics that became the fundamental mode of the Commedia They demonstrate how Dante here attempts his first full account of his relation to the universe as a whole This work offers many insights into the intrinsic significance of these remarkable poems and their place in Dante's development Especially far reaching are the implications for the interpretation of The Divine Comedy Time and the Crystal will interest not only students of Dante but also intellectual historians historians of science students of poetics and poetic theory and all those interested in medieval literature This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand

Poetry's Appeal E. S. Burt, 1999 Poetry's Appeal studies the reemergence of a viable poetry in the politicized culture of revolutionary and post revolutionary France It finds that poetry addresses history and the political through a disjunction between its illusory status as a song of private lyrical intent and its actual state as a material inscription inevitably public in character
