On The Waterfront An Historical Tour Of Newcastle's Quayside:

On the Waterfront Ian Ayris, Patricia Sheldon, 1997 North East England, 1850-1914 Graeme J. Milne, 2006 The development of the coalfield and the riparian manufacturing districts moulded new industrial landscapes the growth of ports and conurbations demanded innovative approaches to government and administration and the business strategies of North East entrepreneurs challenged conventional boundaries The author concludes that riverside districts on the Tyne Tees and Wear represented more viable working horizons than any regional North East in this era and raises important questions about the study of the English regions in their historical context Jacket Bibliography of Nautical Books Alan Obin, 2000-02 This is the 15th annual edition of the Bibliography of Nautical Books a reference guide to over 14 000 nautical publications It deals specifically with the year 2000 Newcastle East Through Time Darren W. Ritson, 2012-08-15 This fascinating selection of photographs traces some of the many ways in which Newcastle East has changed and developed over the last century Waterfront Regeneration Harry Smith, Maria Soledad Garcia Ferrari, 2012-03-12 Waterfront regeneration and development represents a unique opportunity to spatially and visually alter cities worldwide However its multi faceted nature entails city building with all its complexity including the full range of organizations involved and how they interact This book examines how more inclusive stakeholder involvement has been attempted in the nine cities that took part in the European Union funded Waterfront Communities Project It focuses on analyzing the experience of creating new public realms through city building activities These public realms include negotiation arenas in which different discourses meet and are created including those of planners urban designers and architects politicians developers landowners and community groups as well as physical environments where the new city districts public life can take place drawing lessons for waterfront regeneration worldwide The book opens with an introduction to waterfront regeneration and then provides a framework for analyzing and comparing waterfront redevelopments which is followed by individual case study chapters highlighting specific topics and issues including land ownership and control decision making in planning processes the role of planners in public space planning visions for waterfront living citizen participation design based waterfront developments a social approach to urban waterfront regeneration and successful place making Significant findings include the difficulty of integrating long term sustainability into plans and the realization that climate change adaptation needs to be explicitly integrated into regeneration planning The transferable insights and ideas in this book are ideal for practising and student urban planners and designers working on developing plans for long term sustainable waterfront regeneration anywhere in the world The Archaeology of Stone D P S Peacock, 2013-04-15 This report considers retention and processing policies evaluates the needs of stone identification and provenancing and examines ways of recording technological traces of stone working or use Shared Visions David Petts, Christopher M. Gerrard, 2006 The New Waterfront Ann Breen, Dick Rigby, 1996 Making telling use of hundreds of photographs Ann Breen and Dick Rigby analyze key waterfront developments from around the world in seven major themes commercial public enjoyment of the waterfront via cafes and restaurants hotels shopping and socializing cultural and educational in which museums and concert halls ecological parks and modern aquariums are made attractive and accessible historic with a focus on the structures of past generations modernized to take into account today's needs and tastes recreational parks and walkways marinas and play areas residential urban projects rather than resorts and working waterfronts featuring today's continued industrial uses of center city waterfronts an often forgotten aspect of the new waterfront The authors also select some of the most dramatic waterfront makeovers for inclusion in a separate chapter on Major Transformations These include vast projects but also smaller efforts with significant community impact Dozens of schemes are discussed in detail and nearly a hundred are put into context in the illustrated gazetteer at the end of the book revealing waterfront regeneration as a truly universal phenomenon of our time Authoritatively written meticulously researched and spectacularly illustrated The New Waterfront is an indispensable resource for architects urban planners developers landscape designers and students a book that will also have a much wider appeal for anyone lured by the attraction of the water's edge

Tourism and Urban Regeneration Alberto Amore, 2019-08-05 Tourism and Urban Regeneration Processes Compressed in Time and Space presents the global phenomenon of tourism and urban regeneration through the contemporary frames of spatial planning theory metagovernance resilience and disaster capitalism Drawing upon cases from several cities around the globe the book advances the field with the inclusion of examples from post disaster rebuilding and recovery The book is rooted in a theoretical framework that considers time space and tourism as core facets for the analysis By doing so it provides readers with an understanding of different yet similar processes of urban development and identifies the principles for tourism and urban regeneration to effectively contribute to socio economic growth urban change and long term sustainability The theory is illustrated through insightful case studies covering a range of urban tourism destinations including Dubai Newcastle Christchurch Pittsburgh Detroit and Taipei This work will be of great interest to upper level students and researchers in Tourism as well as those in the fields of Geography Urban Planning and Policy and Development

The Little Book of Newcastle John Sadler,Rosie Serdiville,2011-10-01 The Little Book of Newcastle is a funny fast paced fact packed compendium of the sort of frivolous fantastic or simply strange information which no one will want to be without Here we find out about the most unusual crimes and punishments eccentric inhabitants famous sons and daughters and literally hundreds of wacky facts plus some authentically bizarre bits of historic trivia John Sadler s new book gathers together a myriad of data on Newcastle There are lots of factual chapters but also plenty of frivolous details which will amuse and surprise A reference book and a quirky guide this can be dipped in to time and time again to reveal something new about the people the heritage the secrets and the enduring fascination of the city A remarkably engaging little book this is essential reading for visitors and locals alike

European Port Cities and Urban Regeneration Enrico Tommarchi,2022-07-29 Culture and event led regeneration have been catalysts for the transformation of redundant urban port areas and for the reframing of the image of many port cities which notably feature among mega event bidding and host cities However there is little understanding of the impacts of these processes on port city relationships as well as of how port city cultures shape mega events and the related regeneration strategies The book examines the underexplored mutual links between on the one hand urban and socio economic regeneration driven by cultural and sporting mega events and on the other hand the spatial political and symbolic ties between cities and their ports By adopting a cross national comparative perspective with in depth case studies Hull Rotterdam Genoa and Valencia and examples from other port cities across the world where mega events were held the book engages with issues such as the tension between port and cultural uses reactions and opposition to mega events in port cities clashing urban imaginaries drawing on port activity and culture the role of port authorities and companies in the city s cultural life the spectacularisation and commodification of local maritime culture and heritage processes of cultural demaritimisation and remaritimisation of port cities The book is therefore a contribution towards the bridging of port city and mega event studies and it provides insights for port city policy makers and mega event promoters drawing from a range of international experiences The book also shows how societal and political change in the current ontologically insecure times may undermine the very paradigm of culture and event led regeneration in the years to come Mededelingen van de Nederlandse Vereniging voor Zeegeschiedenis Nederlandse Vereniging voor Zeegeschiedenis,1995 The English Landscape in the Twentieth Century Trevor Rowley,2006-01-01 Trevor Rowley s new study is a highly topical account of the changes that have taken place and that continue to take place on the country around us Slow Northumberland and Durham Gemma Hall,2012 Northumbria is home to the loneliest stretches of moorland and coast in the country The region has much to offer the nature lover walking enthusiast history buff gastronome and gardener rare wildlife Georgian architecture the Pennine hills Hadrian s Wall Alnwick Gardens and Alnwick Castle featured in the Harry Potter films Gemma Hall shares her love of Northumberland Durham and Tyneside guiding visitors through historic towns cities and villages across the Cheviot Hills and along Northumberland s Heritage Coast to outdoor swimming spots high altitude flower meadows and the wooded gorges of the Durham coast
