Understanding Ethiopia's Tigray War Martin Plaut, Sarah Vaughan, 2023-02-16 The war in Ethiopia's northern region of Tigray began in November 2020 It inflicted more casualties than any other contemporary conflict in the world It has also been among the least understood The fighting and accompanying blockade led to an estimated 600 000 deaths more than the number who died in the 1984-5 famine International journalists were banned as the region was sealed off from the outside world by Ethiopian and Eritrean governments prosecuting a strategy designed to crush Tigray at almost any cost Hatred of Tigrayans was stoked by senior advisers to Ethiopia's Prime Minister Abiy Ahmed they have called Tigrayans weeds who must be uprooted their place in history extinguished Their language was reminiscent of that which preceded the genocide in Rwanda The war was also orchestrated by Eritrea's President Isaias Afwerki who came to wield increasing influence over Ethiopian affairs It drew in Somali troops as well as Eritrean forces Peace agreements signed in November 2022 ended the worst of the violence but without resolving the war's underlying drivers which continue to feed a tense and uncertain situation. This book provides the first clear explanation of the factors that led to the conflict unravelling their roots in Ethiopia's long and complex history. It describes the battles that were fought at such terrible cost and the immense suffering particularly of women who were brutally abused. The Itinerário of Jerónimo Lobo M.G. Da Costa, 2017-05-15. Jerónimo Lobo was the last survivor of the small band of Jesuit Fathers who tried with a measure of success to reconcile Ethiopia to the Church of Rome. The narrative begins with Lobo's ordination in 1621 and ends seventeen years later. Chosen to serve in India, he reached that country after being involved with a naval fight against the Dutch and English off Mozambique. Selected for the Ethiopian mission, he made a remarkable attempt to reach the country from the Somali coast and eventually made his way to Bailul in the Red Sea and across the Danakil desert. He spent nine years in Ethiopia principally in the north and in the neighbourhood of the source of the Blue Nile. Exiled when the Emperor restored the authority of the Ethiopian Church, he was handed over to the Turks at Massawa. After suffering much hardship and danger, he regained India. Sent to Europe to advocate intervention on behalf of the Ethiopian Catholics, his ship was wrecked on the South African coast. The castaways built two boats, one of which succeeded in rounding the Cape and arriving at Luanda. Here Lobo embarked on a ship carrying slaves to the Spanish main, which was captured by the Dutch. Lobo was marooned on an island but contrived to make his way to Cartagena and Havana and so to Europe. His diplomatic business took him to Madrid and Rome, but his plea for armed assistance for the Ethiopian Catholics did not succeed. Translated by Donald M. Lockhart.

Locating Politics in Ethiopia's Irreecha Ritual Serawit Bekele Debele, 2019-08-26. In Locating Politics in Ethiopia's Irreecha Ritual, Serawit Bekele Debele gives an account of politics and political processes in contemporary Ethiopia as manifested in the annual ritual performance. Mobilizing various sources such as archives, oral accounts, conversations, videos, newspapers, and personal observations, Debele critically analyses political processes and how they are experienced, made sense of, and articulated across generational, educational, religious, gender, and ethnic differences as well as political persuasions. Moreover, she engages Irreecha in relation to the hugely contested meaning-making processes attached to the Thanksgiving ritual, which has now become an integral part of Oromo national identity. AF Press Clips, 1988.

A Postcolonial Political Theology of Care and Praxis in Ethiopia's Era of Identity Politics Rode Molla, 2022-12-15. The author argues that identity politics eliminates Ethiopians in between spaces and identities and defines in between spaces as political, social, religious, and geographical spaces that enable Ethiopians to co-exist with equity, solidarity, and justice. The elimination of in between spaces and in between identities creates either or class, religious, ethnic, and gender categories. Therefore, the author proposes an in between theology that invites Ethiopians to a new hybrid way of being to resist fragmented and hegemonic identities The author claims that postcolonial discourse and praxis of in between pastoral care disrupts and interrogates hegemonic definitions of culture home subjectivity and identity On the other hand in between pastoral care uses embodiment belonging subjectivity and hybridity as features of care and praxis to create intercultural and intersubjective identities that can co construct and co create in between spaces In the in between spaces Ethiopians can relate with the Other with intercultural competencies to live their difference similarity hybridity and complexity

Transnational Communication and Identity Construction in Diaspora Merga Yonas Bula,2023-12-14 The study was sparked by the absence of literature on transnational masspersonal communication tmc of Eritrean Ethiopian Oromo and Somali diaspora communities To bridge this theoretical gap an empirical study was conducted at meso level based on three questions a what topics do people in the diaspora communities discuss in relation to their homelands via social media an alternative for tmc b how do they communicate about their homelands issues in relation to their collective identities and c how does this communication enable the construction of their own identity as well as the deconstruction of competing identities The theoretical analysis from the perspective of these questions led to developing own model i e the Diasporic Identity Construction in Transnational Masspersonal Communication Model DICTMCM This model which connects the theoretical analysis to the empirical study argues that their communication in relation to their homelands particularly about their collective identities consists not only of what they talk but also of how they converse As a result the empirical results delivered a comparative analysis of the tmc of these four diaspora communities and how they construct their collective identities via this tmc which bridged the above stated gap

Singing and Suffering with the Servant David M. Stark,2022-10-10 The Old Testament is transformed from problem to ally when preachers attend to power at work in ancient and modern contexts by mirroring Second Isaiah s proclamation listening to contemporary servant Israel and learning from African American preaching in context of domination This book analyses the impact of domination on Old Testament proclamation and thus leads to several unique contributions Firstly it reads Second Isaiah as a homiletic model for proclaiming older pre exilic texts in response to exilic domination Secondly it treats the Old Testament as a rich resource for confronting racism and anti-Semitism though teaching and it introduces contemporary Christian Jewish dialogue in Germany as a model for the Church Lastly it highlights preaching traditions within the African American Church as instructive for formulating an effective Old Testament preaching strategy
