volunteers since 2011
In Loving Memory of daughter, Erin,

Mark and Judi Brost, originally from Green Bay and Madison, both came to Wausau for their jobs in 1979. They met and married and lived in Wausau until fall of 2020. They since moved to Sedona, AZ but continue to support Wings in many capacities, virtually. In 2009, their daughter Erin died at the age of 25 as a result of addiction. Having heard about the Wings organization many years earlier, they contacted Nan and Gary and began attending the Wings programs. Not only did they gain much needed education and support from Wings, but now, as volunteers, have found some true friends in the Wings family. They feel honored to be able assist the organization in any way possible. In addition to their daughter Erin, they have a son, Matthew, who lives in Colorado. Mark and Judi are retired and enjoy travelling, hiking in AZ, and spending more time with their family and friends.
