Lost Kingdom: Animal Death in the Anthropocene Wendy A. White Man's Game Stephanie Hanes, 2025-06-25 A probing examination of Western conservation efforts in Africa where our feel good stories belie a troubling reality The stunningly beautiful Gorongosa National Park once the crown jewel of Mozambique was nearly destroyed by decades of civil war It looked like a perfect place for Western philanthropy revive the park and tourists would return a win win outcome for the environment and the impoverished villagers living in the area So why did some researchers find the local communities actually getting hungrier sicker and poorer as the project went on And why did efforts to bring back wildlife become far more difficult than expected In pursuit of answers Stephanie Hanes takes readers on a vivid safari across southern Africa from the shark filled waters off Cape Agulhas to a reserve trying to save endangered wild dogs She traces the tangled history of Western missionaries explorers and do gooders in Africa from Stanley and Livingstone to Teddy Roosevelt from Bono and the Live Aid festivals to Greg Carr the American benefactor of Gorongosa And she examines the larger problems that arise when Westerners try to fix complex messy situations in the developing world acting with best intentions yet potentially overlooking the wishes of the people who live there Beneath the uplifting stories we tell ourselves about helping Africans she shows often lies a dramatic misunderstanding of what the locals actually need and want A gripping narrative of environmentalists and insurgents poachers and tycoons elephants and angry spirits White Man s Game profoundly challenges the way we think about philanthropy and conservation In Cobb's Shadow Dan D'Addona,2015-09-30 Considered one of the greatest baseball players of all time Ty Cobb cast a shadow over the game with his violent behavior on the field and off His shadow was never darker than when it fell on his teammates Sam Crawford Harry Heilmann and Heinie Manush were three of the greatest players in baseball history good enough to be in the National Baseball Hall of Fame Each played in the Detroit outfield alongside Cobb though their fame never reached the level of his Little is remembered about this trio of Hall of Famers Crawford the all time triples leader Heilmann the last right handed batter to hit 400 and Manush another batting champion each made his own mark on the game detailed for the first time in this triple biography The Yale Alumni Weekly ,1925 Animals and Plants in Chinese Religions and Science Huaiyu Chen,2023-03-14 This book is a unique transdisciplinary study on animals and plants in medieval Chinese religions and science especially in such a critical era of environmental crisis today In recent years environment historians have written intensively on China yet the study of animals and plants in medieval China was less developed not much about the role of religions more precisely This book aims to bridge the gaps between religious studies and environmental studies between the history of science and religious studies and between animal studies and plant studies It also deals with folklores and other literary sources for examining the changing images of animals in the psychological and imaginative experience which are often overlooked in the conventional scholarship This book addresses big issues such as how religious agents responded to the challenges about animals and plants as material culture in the mundane world and how the religious writers developed their different discourse about animals and plants from the state ideology and how the spiritual world and natural world mutually enriched each other in the medieval world of China Designing Web Sites that Work Tom Brinck,Darren Gergle,Scott D. It also reveals the legendary rising story of the phoenix kingdom erased by the Qin, highlighting the importance of the middle Yangtze River region in forming a southern style in Chinese art. For a better understanding of the Zeng and Chu material, the exhibition catalogue consists of seven essays to elaborate the introduction to the remarkable art and culture of this region with entries of about 150 works in six categories: jade, bronze, ritual vessels, musical instruments and weapons, lacquerware for luxury and ceremony, funerary bronze and wood objects, and textiles and artefacts with designs. Seven contributors have written for this catalogue, including five outside scholars with expertise on different subjects.
