Office of Architecture in Barcelona Carlos Ferrater, 2010 This book presents and analyses the career of architect Carlos Ferrater since the creation of his new studio called OAB Office of Architecture in Barcelona With the arrival of young architects to the team the activity of OAB is not only deployed in the execution of construction projects but how it is also complemented and enriched by going into depth in other fields such as teaching and academic research OAB draws on the collaborative nature of Carlos Ferrater's previous studio incorporating new ways of understanding the contributions of each team member to generate richer more varied and flexible projects Their most relevant projects are the Beach Promenade in Benidorm the Mandarin Hotel the Zaragoza Delicias Station House A and Roca Barcelona Gallery among many others Recent works and projects presented by means of extensive photoreportages plans drawings and QR codes which link the printed matter and the digital world

Architecture Xenoculture Juan Azulay, Benjamin Rice, Carlo Aiello, 2014-01-01 Xenoculture is a term coined by Iranian writer and philosopher Reza Negarestani that describes the need for embracing and exploring the unexpected the alien In this issue we borrow the idea and explore the realm of Architecture Xenoculture the work of architects and designers who detach from everything that architecture is supposed to be and look like including preconceived forms and aesthetics to look into new architectural and design possibilities An architectural form that emerges from mathematical processes and new material explorations and proposes something never before seen an aesthetic yet to be determined Some of the work showcased has been produced by leading architecture practitioners and academics worldwide including Hernan Diaz Alonso Servo Francois Roche Marc Fornes Kokkugia Zaha Hadid Volkan Alkanoglu and Rafael Lozano among others Architecture Xenoculture is the problematization of work produced by embracing the proliferation of this mist of fear It argues for the harnessing of this aesthetic of fear towards a yet to be determined end intensifying its practice towards new thresholds those that unleash the potential of the alien in the world beyond the limited imaginary we have become anesthetized to conjuring insecure material and behavioral manifestations of the xeno gene and its ability to adapt mutate survive and fight

Nationalism and Architecture Raymond Quek, Darren Deane, Sarah Butler, 2012 Bringing together case studies from Europe North and South America the Middle East Africa Asia and Australia this book provides an exploration of the relationship between architecture and nationalism It includes essays grouped together in three thematic sections Revisiting Nationalism Interpreting Nationalism and Questioning Nationalism Carlos Ferrater Carlos Ferrater, 2022-06-01 The first complete monograph on the career of Carlos Ferrater Carlos Ferrater's early buildings showed how the expression of modern architecture with its abstraction repetition transparency and use of industrial materials could be brought into line with Mediterranean classicism with the rigor of the composition Before setting up in 2006 along with

Xavier Mart Luc a Ferrater and Borja Ferrater the Office of Architecture in Barcelona OAB Carlos Ferrater developed an intense and prolonged professional career on his own since 1971 with his advanced project for the Instant City Now we present this first and therefore complete monograph on the unique career of this Catalan architect Carlos Ferrater awarded the 2009 National Architecture Award by the Spanish Ministry of Housing for his overall career and since 2011 member of the Royal Institute of British Architects International RIBA Fellowship The book reflects Carlos Ferrater professional practice having proved his worth in many projects of enormous relevance and distinction International Exhibitions and Urbanism Francisco Javier Monclús,2009 International Exhibitions and Urbanism provides an insightful and comprehensive historical review of international exhibitions in its first half which is then illustrated with a thorough technical analysis of the Zaragoza 2008 project in its second half The Architectural Imagination at the Digital Turn Nathalie Bredella,2022-06-29 The Architectural Imagination at the Digital Turn asks what it means to speak of a digital turn in architecture It examines how architects at the time engaged with the digital and imagined future modes of practice and looks at the technological conceptual and economic phenomena behind this engagement It argues that the adoption of digital technology in architecture was far from linear but depended on complex factors from the operative logic of the technology itself to the context in which it was used and the people who interacted with it Creating a mosaic like account the book presents debates projects and publications that changed how architecture was visualized fabricated and experienced using digital technology Spanning the university new media art institutes ecologies architectural bodies fabrication and the city it re evaluates familiar narratives that emphasized formal explorations instead the book aims to complicate the myth of the digital by presenting a nuanced analysis of the material and social context behind each case study During the 1990s architects repurposed software and technological concepts from other disciplines and tested them in a design environment Some architects were fascinated by its effects others were more critical Through its discussion on case studies places and themes that fundamentally influenced discourse formation in the era this book offers scholars researchers and students fresh insights into how architecture can engage with the digital realm today Infinite Suburbia MIT Norman B. Leventhal Center for Advanced Urbanism,2018-03-13 Infinite Suburbia is the culmination of the MIT Norman B Leventhal Center for Advanced Urbanism s yearlong study of the future of suburban development Extensive research an exhibition and a conference at MIT s Media Lab this groundbreaking collection presents fifty two essays by seventy four authors from twenty different fields including but not limited to design architecture landscape planning history demographics social justice familial trends policy energy mobility health environment economics and applied and future technologies This exhaustive compilation is richly illustrated with a wealth of photography aerial drone shots drawings plans diagrams charts maps and archival materials making it the definitive statement on suburbia at the beginning of the twenty first century The New Spanish Architecture Anatxu Zabalbeascoa,1992 Traces the history of architecture in Spain since World War II and examines the work of thirteen architects and firms Spain David Cohn, 2024-11-18 An investigation of the influences and evolution of modern Spain's underappreciated but foundational architecture Spain's remarkable twentieth century architecture evolved against a turbulent background of revolution civil war dictatorship and transition to democracy Architecture played a key role in Spain's struggle out of poverty and isolation and its search for identity in the modern world This book examines Spanish architecture from the roots of Modernism in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the present analyzing significant figures and their works in relation to their political social and cultural contexts as well as their contributions to architecture as a whole From the austere local Modernism of the 1920s the influence of international trends in the 30s the renewed Organicist Modernism of the 50s and 60s to the flourishing public architecture of the late twentieth century and beyond Spain provides a penetrating account of the country's rich and varied built environment

International Exhibitions and Urbanism Javier Monclús, 2017-05-15 International Exhibitions and Urbanism provides an insightful and comprehensive historical review of international exhibitions in its first half which is then illustrated with a thorough technical analysis of the Zaragoza 2008 project in its second half The first half offers a comparative analysis of nearly 50 events which have taken place over the past 150 years as well as exploring the relationships with urbanism from a planning perspective Underpinned by the first hand information that the author has as one of the event's organizers the second half is devoted to the Zaragoza project for the 2008 Exposition After giving contextual historical and demographic information the Expo's master plan and building projects are then described Bedside Essays for Lovers (of Cities)

Daniel Solomon, 2012-06-12 In this provocative collection of essays renowned architect Daniel Solomon delves into the complexities of what makes a city vibrant Acknowledging that a city is not a static thing he argues we need to pay more attention to nurturing what he calls continuous cities In such a city he says new buildings new institutions and new technologies don't rip apart the old and wreck it They accommodate they act with respect and they add vibrant new chapters to history without eradicating it Continuity he explains is the way to promote sustainability and contrary to what the advocates of modern architecture claim he insists that honoring the traditional ways of city building still provides a solid foundation for places to grow evolve be modern However fond you are of your city or however much you feel it needs improvement this short collection of essays offers an enticing vision of the future All of our cities have a past worth examining a richness of experience that can shape the future in wonderful surprising ways Solomon's prose is thought provoking and inspiring well worth keeping close by wherever you do your reading be it your bedside couch a park or on the metro Shanghai Transforming

Iker Gil, 2022-03-18 Over the last few years architects from around the world are discovering China as the perfect place to develop their architecture By contrast to the restrictions and limitations of European and American cities Shanghai with its seemingly boundless possibilities represents a bold new opportunity for architecture and urbanism Shanghai with the upcoming 2010 World Expo is immersed in a deep physical transformation reconsidering the relationships within the city as well as surrounding neighborhoods and investing in buildings with national and international signatures Shanghai Transforming examines this transformation focusing on a widely diverse aspects including history natural and artificial resources economy society and public perception Graphics and data along with photographs and maps provide the reader with a rich resource from which to understand and appreciate this complex process With photographs by Juan de Dios Perez and texts by Denise Scott Brown Saskia Sassen Silas Chiow Sharon Haar Xiangning Li Xiaochun Zhang Weigang Qiu Haolun Shu Philip Enquist Sol Madridejos Juan Carlos Sancho Robert Venturi Greg Girard and Jonathan Miller Art Book News Annual, volume 4: 2008Art Book News Annual, volume 4: 2008 ,
