A Philosophy for Europe Roberto Esposito, 2018-06-11 Amid a devastating economic crisis two tragic events coming from the outside the wave of immigration and Islamic terrorism have radically changed the profile and significance of the space we call Europe Given a paradigm leap of this sort philosophical reflection is in a position to exert its creative power more than other types of knowledge But this can only happen if it is able to go beyond its own lexical boundaries by turning its gaze outside itself Here the leading Italian philosopher Roberto Esposito looks at how various strands of German French and Italian thought have achieved this outward turn and successfully captured international attention by breaking with the language of early nineteenth century crisis philosophies When analyzed from this novel perspective the great texts of Adorno Derrida Foucault and Deleuze as well as works by the latest Italian thinkers are cast in a new light From the relationship and tension between them reconstructed here with extraordinary theoretical sensitivity a form of thought can arise that is equal to the challenges faced by Europe today This erudite and wide ranging analysis of European thought in the light of the crises facing the continent today will appeal to students and scholars of philosophy critical theory and beyond
