Once There Was A Boy Other Stories:

The Box Social and Other Stories James Reaney, 1996 The Box Social Other Stories gathers together nine of James Reaney's short fictions written in the 40s and early 50s and never previously collected in book form The collection takes its title from a short piece the author originally published in the University College Undergrad and which provoked a firestorm of eight hundred angry letters from subscribers when it was republished nationally in the New Liberty in the late 40s It also thwarted the young author's designs on the editorship of the Undergrad because of his clear moral unsuitability for such an august position This is doubtful because the Undergrad eventually came to be edited thirty years later by PQL publisher Tim Inkster The Box Social is remarkable not only that it introduced the theme of date rape to Canadian literature some thirty years before the phrase was coined but also that it is told from Sylvia's point of view and yet again that it ends with one of the quietest lines of literary vitriol imaginable I hated you so much she said softly If Alice Munro has put the sexually awakening female under glass in Lives of Girls and Women then The Box Social could just as easily have been titled Lives of Boys and Men In The Bully the brutality of what passes for etiquette in secondary school is contrasted with the simpler life of the farm personified in Noreen who drops grain in the shape of letters to feed her chickens so that when the hens ate the grain they were forced to spell out Noreen's initials or to form a cross and circle There were just enough hens to make this rather an interesting game Sometimes I know Noreen spelled out whole sentences in this way a letter or two each night and I often wondered to whom she was writing up in the sky The Bully was included in The New Oxford Book of Canadian Short Stories edited by Margaret Atwood and Robert Weaver The young Margaret Atwood first encountered The Bully as an undergraduate She read the story oddly enough in an anthology edited by Robert Weaver and the experience was apparently seminal to her own development as a writer of fiction Dreadful Young Ladies and Other Stories Kelly Barnhill, 2018-02-20 When Mrs Sorensen's husband dies she rekindles a long dormant love with an unsuitable mate in Mrs Sorensen and the Sasquatch In Open the Door and the Light Pours Through a young man wrestles with grief and his sexuality in an exchange of letters with his faraway beloved Dreadful Young Ladies demonstrates the strength and power known and unknown of the imagination In Notes on the Untimely Death of Ronia Drake a witch is haunted by the deadly repercussions of a spell The Insect and the Astronomer upends expectations about good and bad knowledge and ignorance love and longing The World Fantasy Award winning novella The Unlicensed Magician introduces the secret magical life of an invisible girl once left for dead with thematic echoes of Barnhill's Newbery Medal winning novel The Girl Who Drank the Moon With bold reality bending invention underscored by richly illuminated universal themes of love death jealousy and hope the stories in Dreadful Young Ladies show why its author has been hailed as a fantasist on the order of Neil Gaiman Minneapolis Star Tribune This collection cements Barnhill's place as one of the wittiest most vital and compelling voices in contemporary literature East of the Sun and Other Stories Dean Francis Alfar, 2015-07-31 East of the Sun and Other Stories is Dean Francis Alfar's love

Stories On Wheel Window 52 & Other Stories Rakesh Kumar Bahadur,2024-04-23 The book contains a series of stories told on a train journey I was watching the heinous crime My mother was praying to God for mercy Suddenly my nani held me from behind and closed my eyes with her hands and asked me to go inside Silence moved with darkness in the compartment A condensed drop of tear rolled out from the corner of his eyes As a child witnessed the mob violence during Assam agitation in 1980 I ran inside the room took the bowl of those dried Jasmines and threw them out of the window in the garden covered my face and started crying in the corner of the bed holding the saree of my grandmother telepathy and the truth the child faced I stealthily raised my head and felt better and smiled like a fool I still remember how my mother helped me to get rid of terror The vendor saw that the lady swung her hands from the top window of the house which shockingly hanging down and down and down in front of his face just in a kissing distance This sight of such a long hanging hands fainted him window No 52 The main door was locked he got panicked there was no one except his shadow and the silence he was stuck the
