Once There Was A Swagman:

Once a Jolly Swagman Matthew Richardson, 2006-01-01 Banjo Paterson's Waltzing Matilda is the one song that has been bringing people together spontaneously since 1895 and the one song that belongs to all Australians. Generations of experts have argued about the original story that Paterson immortalised about the origins of the tune and about what Paterson meant by his almost parodic over use of Australian colloquialisms. Once a Jolly Swagman takes readers off the score sheet into the story of the song and tells of its evolution up until the twenty first century. It tries to answer the riddles within the song and unpick its inherent contradictions where's the heroism in a suicidal thief? What was jolly about the jumbuck? Is Waltzing Matilda the key to Australian values? What does it mean that a beloved song about Australia's pioneering past is written by a city lawyer? In this age of economic rationalism and a globalised world how does a voice from the billabong saying 'You'll come a waltzing matilda with me' still matter and what does it tell us about ourselves? Australian Folk Song Ron Edwards, 1994

Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature Helen Frank, 2014-04-08 Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature offers a detailed and innovative model of analysis for examining the complexities of translating children's literature and sheds light on the interpretive choices at work in moving texts from one culture to another. The core of the study addresses the issue of how images of a nation, locale or country are constructed in translated children's literature with the translation of Australian children's fiction into French serving as a case study. Issues examined include the selection of books for translation, the relationship between children's books and the national and international publishing industry, the packaging of translations and the importance of titles, blurbs and covers, the linguistic and stylistic features specific to translating for children, intertextual references, the function of the translation in the target culture, didactic and pedagogical aims, euphemistic language and explicitation and literariness in translated texts. The findings of the case study suggest that the most common constructs of Australia in French translations reveal a preponderance of traditional Eurocentric signifiers that identify Australia with the outback, the antipodes, the exotic, the wild, the unknown, the void, the end of the world, the young and innocent nation and the Far West. Contemporary signifiers that construct Australia as urban, multicultural, Aboriginal, worldly and inharmonious are seriously under-represented. The study also shows that French translations are conventional, conservative and didactic, showing preference for an exotic rather than local specificity with systematic manipulation of Australian referents betraying a perception of Australia as antipodean, rural, exoticism. The significance of the study lies in underscoring the manner in which a given culture is constructed in another cultural milieu, especially through translated children's literature. Children's Fiction Sourcebook Margaret Hobson, Jennifer Madden, Ray Prytherch, 2018-12-17 First published in 1992, this Sourcebook is a basic working tool for all those concerned with children's reading. It will help librarians and teachers to select a comprehensive stock of children's fiction for their institutions. The authors in the sourcebook have been selected on the grounds of importance, popularity and current availability. Author entries are arranged in alphabetical order and indexes provided by title series age range and genre Each entry consists of some background information and evaluative comment on style of the book a list of the authors books with publisher date and price and literary agent where applicable There is a suggestion of similar authors sequels related series and reader age range

On the Origins of Waltzing Matilda (expression, Lyric, Melody). Harry Hastings Pearce,1971 Outback to Asia Stuart Dick,2002 Outback to Asia is the true story of a Vietnam war dissenter the author who left a career and home in America in 1972 in search of the truth about communism and Vietnam The rtrip _ begins with lofty ideals and fervent convictions but those values melt in the face of obstacles temptations and adventures along the way traversing three continents The mission to reach the killing fields of Asia leads the author into the depths of dysentery in Mexico the enchantment of lovely ladies on the Great Barrier Island of New Zealand and the perils of crossing the Outback of Australia in a 1951 Rover touring sedan Broken and discouraged the author finds hope stranded on an Aboriginal settlement and purpose in a providential meeting in Adelaide Australia These adventures set the table for a new level of providential confrontations manifest in the killing fields of Asia in Laos and Bangladesh and the spiritual dominions of Buddhism Hinduism and Lamaism The ultimate contest awaits the homecoming prodigal pilgrim when he is forced to contend with his own spiritual heritage as an American Tales from the Far Side Jeanne Blanchet,2024-07-11 Tales From the Far Side is a delightful collection of imaginative eclectic short stories some featuring humorous chatty animals not to mention mouthy inanimate objects Many take place during cataclysmic historical events such as the 2012 onslaught of Hurricane Sandy and relate to timely issues such as racism alcoholism and attitudes toward people with disabilities Featuring Navajo code talkers Tuskegee Airmen hibakusha disfigured atom bomb victims and artificial intelligence AI this thought provoking book is sure to captivate anyone who relishes a good albeit far out story A Season in New South Wales George Perkins,2012-07-21 In 1989 we visited Australia where we taught American Literature at the University of Newcastle on a Fulbright Grant We read Australian literature and were very much impressed by Australian writers and the picture they gave of their country We traveled within the country from the coast to the Outback saw koalas and kangaroos and wombats in the wlld fossicked for gold and flew to China where we also lectured and visited the Summer Palace and the Great Wall during a time of great stress within that country A later return to Australia showed a country much changed from the one we had first seen but still a wonderful place
