Syncretic Arenas Isidore Diala, 2014-11-15 This collection in part examines the legacy of the consummate Nigerian stage artist and scholar Esiaba Irobi 1960-2010 Poems tributes and studies celebrate Irobi's significance as actor playwright director poet and theatre theorist Irobi's life temper times and career are inextricably linked to the history development concerns and uses of drama and theatre in Africa The contributions highlight the evolution of autochthonous theatrical practices the interaction between Western and indigenous African performance traditions colonial postcolonial government policies and the mutations of drama and theatre and critically comment on the tensions inherent in postcolonial conceptions of history identity nationhood and articulations of alternative aesthetics pedagogies and epistemologies for postcolonial African theatre staging African plays in the West and the constituencies of the contemporary African playwright and director The strength of these studies derives primarily from nuanced examinations of the concerns and careers of particular African playwrights the history offerings and fortunes of particular theatrical arenas and close explorations of specific performances and texts The foregrounding of correspondences in the dramaturgies and intellectual ferment of the continent critically accentuates equally privileged regional historical and other crucial specificities Situated in time and place while underscoring the political and intellectual intersections of a shared history of colonialism the contributions to Syncretic Arenas individually and collectively reveal the transformations and growing strengths of postcolonialism as an analytical strategy Isidore Diala is Professor of African literature in the Department of English and Literary Studies at Abia State University Uturu and author of Esiaba Irobi's Drama and the Postcolony Theory and Practice of Postcolonial Performance 2013

World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Irving Brown (Consulting Bibliographer), Natasha Rappaport (Bibliographer), Don Rubin (General Editor), Rosabel Wang (Consulting Bibliographer), 2013-10-11 An annotated world theatre bibliography documenting significant theatre materials published world wide since 1945 plus an index to key names throughout the six volumes of the series

Theory of African Literature Chidi Amuta, 2017-06-15 This groundbreaking work first published in 1989 was one of the first to challenge the conventional critical assessment of African literature and remains highly influential today Amuta's key argument is that African literature can be discussed only within the wider framework of the dismantling of colonial rule and Western hegemony in Africa In exploring the possibility of a dialectical alternative critical base he draws upon both classical Marxist aesthetics and the theories of African culture espoused by Fanon Cabral and Ngugi From these explorations Amuta derives a new language of criticism which is then applied to works by modern African writers as diverse as Achebe Ousmane Agostinho Neto and Dennis Brutus Amuta's highly original and innovative approach remains relevant not only for assessing the literature of developing countries but for Marxist and postcolonial theories of literary criticism more generally The author's elegance of argument and clarity of exposition makes this a distinguished and lasting contribution to debates around cultural expression in postcolonial Africa

Theatre and Postcolonial Desires Awam Amkpa, 2004-06 This book explores the themes of colonial encounters and postcolonial contests over identity power and culture through the prism of theatre The struggles it describes unfolded in two cultural settings separated by geography but bound by history in a common web of colonial relations spun by the imperatives of European modernity In post imperial England as in its former colony Nigeria the colonial experience not only hybridized the process of national self definition but also provided dramatists with the language imagery and frame of reference to narrate the dynamics of internal wars over culture and national destiny happening within their own societies The author examines the works of prominent twentieth century Nigerian and English dramatists such as Wole Soyinka Femi Osofisan David Edgar and Caryl Churchill to argue that dramaturgies of resistance in the contexts of both Nigerian as well as its imperial inventor England shared a common allegiance to what he describes as postcolonial desires That is the aspiration to overcome the legacies of colonialism by imagining alternative universes anchored in democratic cultural pluralism The plays and their histories serve as filters through which Amkpa illustrates the operation of what he calls overlapping modernities and reconfigures the notions of power and representation citizenship and subjectivity colonial and anticolonial nationalisms and postcoloniality The dramatic works studied in this book embodied a version of postcolonial aspirations that the author conceptualises as transcending temporal locations to encompass varied moments of consciousness for progressive change whether they happened during the hey day of English imperialism in early twentieth century Nigeria or in response to the exclusionary politics of the Conservative Party in Thatcherite England Theatre and Postcolonial Desires will be essential reading for students and researchers in the areas of drama postcolonial and cultural studies Vision of Change in African Drama Sola Adeyemi, 2019-08-05 Femi Fisan is a major dramatist from Nigeria who experiments with forms and theatrical traditions This book focuses on his development as a dramatist and his contribution to world drama as a postcolonial African writer whose major preoccupation has been to question the colonial and postcolonial issues of identity in theatre literature and performance The volume explores how Fisan exploits his Yoruba heritage in his drama and the performances of his plays by reading new meanings into popular mythology and by re-writing history to comment on contemporary social and political issues Fisan has often introduced new motifs and narratives to energise dramatic performances in Nigeria and globally and this text discusses developments in his theatre practices in the context of changing cultural trends Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea, 2002 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to Ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors Postcolonial Plays Helen Gilbert, 2013-09-13 This collection of contemporary postcolonial plays demonstrates the extraordinary vitality of a body of work that is currently influencing the shape of contemporary world theatre This anthology encompasses both internationally admired classics and previously unpublished texts all dealing with imperialism and its aftermath It includes work from Canada the Caribbean South and West Africa Southeast Asia India New Zealand and Australia A general introduction outlines major themes in postcolonial plays Introductions to individual plays include information on authors as well as overviews of cultural contexts major ideas and performance history Dramaturgical techniques in the plays draw on Western theatre as well as local performance traditions and include agit prop dialogue musical routines storytelling ritual incantation epic narration dance multimedia presentation and puppetry The plays dramatize diverse issues such as globalization political corruption race and class relations slavery gender and sexuality media representation nationalism Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne,Pushpa Naidu Parekh,2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author s writings an overview of the critical response to the author s work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature
