One Brief Moment:

For One Brief Moment Larry G. Weaver, 2002-08-28 For One Brief Moment is the story of one woman's struggle against cancer a battle that many others fought both before and after her Some have won some have lost and with some the battle still rages But none have gone forth to meet this evil and merciless foe with greater courage or with more loving support from family and friends than Joann whose story is told here This is not a happy story It is told with sadness and pain and sorrow and with a sense of guilt on the part of some who survive But it is also a story of bravery and strength and determination and endurance and of the love that helped to light her lonely way Mama's Legacy Louella Irene Bruton, 2011-08-29 A Book of Poems Our Mother Wrote One Small Victory Maryann Miller, 2022-02-06 What do you do when grief slams you in the gut and brings you to your knees Jenny Jasik's life changes in an instant when her son is killed in an automobile accident She is a Confidential Informant an undercover member of a drug task force Jenny only reports to her supervisor Detective Steve Morrity and can never tell anyone else what she's doing There are days she is not sure she can hold it all together But when she looks into the face of her daughter she knows she has to try The Journal of Claude Fredericks Volume Three Part One: Cambridge (1943) Claude Fredericks, 2011-10-07 This third volume of The Journal Of Claude Fredericks is his journal for the year 1943 a Wanderjahr that begins with a spring in Cambridge where Volume Two ended but with Fredericks having left studies at Harvard living now in a room at Maud Bemiss house on Nutting Road near the Cowley Fathers seeing various friends from earlier Brie Taylor John Simon Anthony Clark Paul Doguereau the George Sartons and making new friends as well The summer is spent in a cabin on the shore near Belfast Maine writing and studying still and coming to know the family that lives on the hill In September after spending ten days with Paul Doguereau and Fanny Mason in Walpole New Hampshire on the beautiful Mason estate overlooking the Connecticut and a month in New York living in an apartment on University Place and seeing his friend May Sarton and coming to know Muriel Rukeyser and Julian Beck he heads with his friend William Quinn to Iowa to live with several friends of theirs who also have left Harvard in particular Michael Millen and Paul Rail all of them proclaiming in different ways as Quinn and Fredericks do in theirs their objections to Americas part in the war that had begun in December 1941 After two weeks Fredericks leaves to stay with a friend in Chicago Martha Johnson and to settle in and write about the troubling events of the previous days and then go on to Missouri to pay filial pieties to members of his family there and after that go south with his mother to Mexico City for a week and then with her to Acapulco for ten days at Christmas a spot at that time still undiscovered and with only two small hotels Finally at the years end he heads back east to New York where he has plans to settle down and live forever in the city he had always loved the most of any he knew Nama Panamint Sands, 2025-03-21 When we write the story of one person we tell the story of all people who have lived through all times across the entire geography of the universe We borrow from the history of life and its footprints emerging from the deep past and leading into the ever receding future One life is a mirror for all in a very important sense though not in every sense In Nama an ancient Native American woman recounts the mystery of life weaving the tapestry of life of birth and death of brave battles to be won dreaming of love and justice of creating a heaven on earth She sings of grief over loss of love of greed and rivalry that tear us apart pushing us to harm and even to kill Yet she is also firm in her trust in the affirmation of life Battles are never lost lives are never given in vain She preserves her faith in the redeeming power of grace and self expansion and is willing to wait patiently for future generations to pick up the cross and find the path of emancipation for imprisoned humankind Should we join her march Reflections Monica

Last One Home Jessica Scott, 2015-06-30. Beautifully Written. JoAnn Ross, New York Times Bestselling author of the Shelter Bay series. Jessica Scott brings two unlikely people together to find love. It makes their world a bit brighter and easier to cope with. It gives these people a home life that makes all of their sacrifices worth it. Michelle Saucy, Southern Readers. Holly is by far my favorite Jessica Scott heroine. I'm sure it's her sarcastic nature and her tough exterior that draws me the most. Tina Goodreads Review: I laughed, I cried, and at times wanted to strangle a few characters. Be sure to check her out. Danielle Goodreads Review: Sal Bello doesn't know how to be around people; he's spent his life being a soldier, and that's all he wants to do. He's never been in love, and he doesn't understand what it does to the men around him, struggling to hold their marriages together. For Sal, the rules are a comfort, a way to live life without the messiness of emotions that tend to get out of control. Holly Washington has spent her life around men like Sal Bello, and she knows exactly how to get around his focus on the rules. She knows first hand that sometimes doing the right thing involves breaking the rules. She's not interested in the stoic officer who never seems to smile, but something about him captures her curiosity. Beneath the gruff exterior, she sees a hint of a man shaped by a crushing loneliness that even he may not realize he carries within him. When work throws them together in an impossible situation, Sal is forced to make a choice: break the rules or risk losing his last chance at love and finding a home. Previously published as Find My Way Home and Forged in Fire as part of the Homefront Series, it has been republished as part of the Coming Home series as originally intended. Mission Gamma: Book One David
