Feeling Together and Caring with One Another Héctor Andrés Sánchez Guerrero,2016-07-07 This book examines the human ability to participate in moments of joint feeling It presents an answer to the question concerning the nature of our faculty to share in what might be called episodes of collective affective intentionality The proposal develops the claim that our capacity to participate in such episodes is grounded in an ability central to our human condition our capacity to care with one another about certain things The author provides a phenomenologically adequate account of collective affective intentionality that takes seriously the idea that feelings are at the core of our emotional relation to the world He details a form of group emotional orientation that relies on the fact that the participating individuals have come to share a number of concerns Readers will learn that at the heart of a collective affective intentional episode one does not merely find a set of shared concerns but also a particular mode of caring In the end the argument presented in this monograph makes plausible the idea that the emotions through which humans participate in moments of affective intentional community express our nature In addition it shows that the debate on collective affective intentionality also permits us to better understand the relationship between two conflicting philosophical pictures of ourselves the idea that we are essentially social beings and the claim that we are creatures for whom our personal existence is an issue Thus aiming at an elucidation of the nature of our ability to feel together the book offers a detailed account of what it is to situationally express our human nature by caring about something in a properly joint manner

A Moral Ontology for a Theistic Ethic Frank G. Kirkpatrick,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This book develops a moral ontology for a theistic ethic that engages the work of contemporary moral and political philosophers and reaffirms the relevance of a theistic tradition of God s relation to the world reflected in the fundamental teachings of Judaism Christianity and Islam Drawing on recent thought in the non religious fields of psychology and political and moral philosophy which build around the concept of human flourishing in community Kirkpatrick argues that a theistic ethic need not be the captive of parochial or sectarian theological camps He proposes a common or universal ethic that transcends the fashionable ethnocentric incommensurate differences in morality alleged by many post modern deconstructionists In the wake of ethnic religious strife post September 11th 2001 this book argues for a common morality built on the inclusivity of love community and justice that can transcend sectarian and parochial boundaries

Love One Another, My Friends Augustine,2009-01-02 Augustine s interpretation is spiritual his were not scholarly or academic concerns and John Leinenweber s translation is fresh and accessible capturing the clarity brilliance and inspired passion of the original John has said many things stated Augustine and almost all of them concern love The first six of the ten homilies were delivered on the days of the Easter octave This period proved too short for Augustine to cover the whole of the letter and he preached four additional homilies later in the spring In his Confessions Augustine spoke of his great longing as a youth to love and be loved a topic that appealed greatly to his listeners During the course of delivering these homilies he was interrupted time and again by applause and shouts of enthusiasm The ten homilies are broken up into twenty four short chapters for example The Commandment of Love Two Loves of God and of the World Christ and Antichrists Unanswered Prayer God is Love God Has Loved Us First Love Casts Out Fear His are in large part moral teachings dealing with such topics as prayer our enemies fear of God the church the world so important in Saint John s writings What does one actually do to love God and others What are the pitfalls of loving How can one learn to love more Throughout the homilies Augustine's great desire to love and be loved and to live eternally with God are eloquently expressed Believing himself ignorant of Scripture he had initially considered himself ill prepared for the priesthood Augustine's subsequent tireless studies unleashed a stream of biblical commentaries that led him to be ranked with Thomas Aquinas as one of the greatest teachers the Western Church has ever produced and one of its greatest Fathers His towering intellect molded the thought of Western Christianity and his ideas dominated the thinking of the Western world for a thousand years after his death Augustine wrote profusely explaining and defending the faith Called Doctor of Grace his best known works are his Confessions one of the greatest spiritual classics of all time and City of God an exposition of a Christian philosophy of history
