McMillen, Andrew Watson, 2003-12-16 As China's political and economic development comes under closer scrutiny this Dictionary will prove invaluable to anyone with an interest in contemporary China As well as proving valuable to students and academics of political science economics history and Asian studies it will be of use to government officials business people and media professionals with current or future connections in the region The main topics covered by the Dictionary are major political processes and events key issues in domestic policy China's evolving foreign policy environment key political personalities major political institutions and groupings important aspects of the legal system The Other Hong Kong Report 1994 Donald McMillen, Si-wai Man, 1994 The Making of an Alienated Generation Sai-Wing Leung, 2019-07-23 First published in 1997 this volume examines the political apathy of the Hong Kong Chinese with a particular focus on children in secondary schools While most previous studies have been of adults Leung's approach exposes a generation who are politically uninvolved and disenchanting He examines teacher student encounters in a depoliticized school context and through a curriculum in which explicit political content is absent The study throws light both on Chinese youths and the interaction of older and younger generations and its macroscopic implications are distinctly ominous suggesting trouble ahead for the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Transnational Corporations and Business Networks Henry Wai-Chung Yeung, 2002-09-11 Detailed focus on business in Hong Kong timely and newsworthy Great interest at the moment in Chinese business Culture, Politics and Television in Hong Kong Eric Kit-wai Ma, 2005-07-28 Ma looks at the ways in which the identity of Hong Kong citizens has changed in the 1990s especially since the handover to China in 1997 This is the first analysis which focuses on the role in this process of popular media in general and television in particular The author specifically analyses at the relationship between television ideologies and cultural identities and explores the role of television in the process of identity formation and maintenance

Understanding China John Bryan Starr, 2001-03-14 Derived from a course on contemporary Chinese politics taught at Yale where he was head of Yale's China Association Starr is now director of the Annenberg Institute for School Reform at Brown U this revised edition of the 1997 text offers an overview of the geography political systems power structure and economic makeup of China before turning to problem areas such as environmental pollution ethnic separatism population growth urban and rural concerns China's relations with Taiwan Hong Kong and Macao and its broader economic political and strategic relations round out this study which is supplemented with maps and tables Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Politics of Democratization in Hong Kong Lo Shiu-hing, 2016-07-27 An analysis of the politics of transition in Hong Kong focusing on the tug of war between China and Britain on democratization and on the interactions between the increasingly politically active people of Hong Kong and the democratizing colonial regime The successes and failures of British policy since 1984 and the missed opportunities to democratize faster prior to Governor Patten's appointment in 1992 are examined Power and Identity in the Chinese World Order Billy K.L. So, John Fitzgerald, Jianli Huang, James K. Chin, 2003-03-01 Wang Gungwu is one of the most influential historians of his generation. Initially renowned for his pioneering work on the structure of power in early imperial China, he is more widely known for expanding the horizons of Chinese history to include the histories of the Chinese and their descendants outside China. It is probably no coincidence Philip Kuhn observes that the most comprehensive historian of the Overseas Chinese is the historian most firmly grounded in the history of China itself. This book is a celebration of the life work and impact of Professor Wang Gungwu over the past four decades. It commemorates his contribution to the study of Chinese history and the abiding influence he has exercised over later generations of historians particularly in the Asia Pacific region. The book begins with an historiographical survey by Philip Kuhn. Francis Lee Higginson, Professor of History at Harvard University, of Wang Gungwu's enduring contribution to scholarship. It concludes with an engaging oral history of Professor Wang's life career and research trajectory. The intervening chapters explore many of the fields in which Wang Gungwu's influence has been felt over the years including questions of political authority, national identity, commercial life and the history of the diaspora from imperial times to the present day. Each of these chapters is authored by a former student of Professor Wang now working and teaching in Hong Kong, Southeast Asia, Australasia, Taiwan and Canada. The Asia-Pacific Profile Bernard Eccleston, Michael Dawson, Deborah J. McNamara, 1998. The Asia Pacific Profile offers a unique combination of maps, diagrams, documents and statistical data covering every state around and within the Pacific. North East and South East Asia, the western rim of Central and South America, the Pacific island states, the Russian Far East, North America and Australia. Key features include over 25 historical and contemporary maps featuring flows of labour, trade, investment, tourists and telecommunications and empires, wars, colonial struggles and environmental degradation, succinct surveys of historical developments and contemporary political issues, over 500 diagrams depicting key demographic, economic and social changes since 1970 with appendices showing the actual data used and their sources and key documents that have shaped the Asia Pacific including founding charters of contemporary organizations such as APEC, ASEAN, NAFTA and the WTO, treaties and declarations that started and later resolved conflicts within and between states over politico-economic issues and essential social rights documents concerning indigenous peoples. The Asia Pacific Profile has been designed for those studying or with a general interest in the politics, economics and international relations of the Asia Pacific region. Elections as Popular Culture in Asia Beng Huat Chua, 2007-08-07. Conventional political science depicts legitimate elections as rational affairs in which informed voters select candidates for office according to how their coherently presented aims, ideologies and policies appeal to the self-interest of the electorate. In reality, elections, whether in first world democracies or in the various governmental systems present in Asia, can more realistically be seen as cultural events in which candidates' campaigns are shaped consciously or unconsciously to appeal to the cultural understanding and practices of the electorate The election campaign period is one in which the masses are mobilized to participate in a range of cultural activities from flying the party colours in noisy motorcycle parades to attending political rallies for or against or simply to be entertained by the performances on the political stage and to gambling on the outcome of the contest The essays in this book analyse electioneering activities in nine Asian countries in terms of popular cultural practices in each location ranging from updated traditional cultures to mimicry and caricatures of present day television dramas In presenting political election as an expression of popular culture this book portrays electoral behaviour as a meaningful cultural practice As such this book will appeal to student and scholars of political science and cultural studies alike as well as those with a more general interest in Asian studies Public Administration in the NICs Ahmed Shafiqul Huque, Jane C.Y. Lee, 2016-07-27 The four dragons of Asia Hong Kong Singapore Taiwan and South Korea have achieved remarkable progress over the past decades These newly industrialising countries NICs have emerged as major actors on the world economic scene Their success can be attributed to a number of factors related to historical background relationship with China pattern of governance and performance of administrative political and economic institutions This book examines the role of public administration in the accomplishments of the NICs and identifies potential areas of challenge for the dragons Hong Kong Benjamin K.P. Leung, 2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2003 Hong Kong is a society of contrasts and paradoxes The city has a contrasting and yet fluid intermingling of social and cultural images east and west local and colonial modern and traditional extravagant and frugal In this volume the editor has selected essays dealing with a variety of aspects of Hong Kong including change and development culture and identity trends in political development economy and society social issues and social policy The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications, 2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume China Briefing William A. Joseph, 1996-12-31 This newest China Briefing provides a retrospective analysis of important events in China Taiwan and Hong Kong in the mid 1990s and a prospective look at some of the issues that will shape these areas as they each move toward decisive turning points in their distinct yet intertwined histories The volume includes chapters on politics economics U S China relations Taiwan Hong Kong gender and popular culture and concludes with a detailed chronology covering the period from mid 1994 through mid 1996

Area Bibliography of China Richard T. Wang, 1997 A combination of scholarly commercial and popular interests has generated a large quantity of literature on every aspect of Chinese life during the past two decades This bibliography reflects these combined interests it is broken up into sections by subject headings and cross references refer the researcher to related topics Labor and Class Identities in Hong Kong C. Lee, 2016-04-08 Based on numerous qualitative interviews this cutting edge book investigates how Hong Kong's economic structure and neoliberal policies have contributed to class inequality in China's global city Inspired by Bourdieu's approach to class the author examines class stratification in education works and political attitudes and argues that the lack of explicit class identifications among the people does not imply irrelevance of class. Relying upon empirical field data to question the applicability of the reflexive modernization theory, the text debates whether individualization makes class a redundant concept in advanced capitalist societies. AccessAsia, 1997. The Hong Kong Conundrum Rup Narayan Das, 2022-12-29. The peaceful surrender of Hong Kong to China on the midnight of 30 June 1997 after almost one hundred and fifty six years of colonial rule was unique in the annals of history. Rarely before had one power surrendered a rich prize to another. The credit for finding a solution to the peaceful reunification of Hong Kong, a capital enclave with mainland China, a socialist country through the formula of one country two systems goes to Deng Xiaoping, China's most pragmatic leader. Deng, however, breathed his last before Hong Kong's merger with the mainland. This book attempts to encapsulate the history of Hong Kong ever since the territory was acquired by Great Britain through what the Chinese call the unequal treaties, the evolution of the colonial administration in Hong Kong, its emergence as a commercial centre and financial hub, the protracted Sino-British negotiation leading to the signing of the Joint Declaration and the Basic Law, the democracy debate in Hong Kong, the ethnic Indians in Hong Kong and the pangs of transition. Print edition not for sale in South Asia, India, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bangladesh, Pakistan and Bhutan. The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR Ming K. Chan, Sonny Shiu-hing Lo, 2010. The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China is located on the southeastern coast of China and the Macao SAR can be found off of China's southern coast. Both regions have recently been released from European colonial rule: Hong Kong from British control in 1997 and Macao from Portugal in 1999. As SARs, Hong Kong and Macao retain a high degree of autonomy and they control all issues except those of state, e.g. diplomatic relations and national defense. The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR includes maps, photographs, a list of acronyms, a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on important persons, places and events as well as political, economic and social background. However, unlike the rest of the series, all these sections are presented in duplicate, one for Hong Kong and one for Macao. The authoritative analysis and informative data presented clearly elucidate the unique situation of these two territories.
