One Day At A Time Diaries From A Palestinian Camp:

One Day at a Time Suzy Wighton, 1990 The true story of a young Glaswegian nurse battling to survive in the besieged Palestinian refugee camp of Gourj al Brajneeh Beirut Suzy Wighton talked about what it was like living on a day to day basis in a war zone with the memory of the horrific 1985 massacre at nearby Shatilla camp fresh in mind knowing that few outside were even aware of the appalling suffering and degradation

Coming Home? Vol. 1 Sharif Gemie, 2014-07-18 The wars of the twentieth century uprooted people on a previously unimaginable scale to the extent that being a refugee became an increasingly widespread experience With the arrival of refugees governments of host countries had to mediate between divided national populations some wished to welcome those arriving in search of refuge others preferred a strategy of exclusion or even expulsion At the same time refugees had to manage conflicts of the self as they responded to the loss of nationhood families socio political networks material goods and arguably also a sense of belonging or home While return migration was usually perceived by governments and refugees alike as the best solution to the dilemmas of forced displacement consensus about the timing and dynamics of how this would actually occur was very difficult to achieve In practice the return of refugees to their countries of origin rarely if ever produced a wholly satisfactory outcome Conflicts clearly resulted in forced displacement but it is equally true that forced displacement created conflicts The complex inter relationship of conflict return migration and the sometimes chimerical but still compelling search for a sense of home is the central preoccupation of the contributors to the two volumes of the Coming Home series Scholars from history literature cultural studies and sociology explore the tensions between nation states and migrants as they have anticipated implemented or challenged the process of return migration during the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book begins with Western Europe and progresses to Central and Eastern Europe from the period of the Spanish Civil War to the Cold War era whilst the second volume Coming home Vol 2 Conflict and Postcolonial Return Migration in the Context of France and North Africa shifts the focus to the colonial and post colonial framework of the French North African nexus What emerges from the two volumes of essays is that as ambiguous and sometimes ambivalent as home could appear it was nonetheless central to migrants preoccupations about returning

In Extremis Lindsey Hilsum, 2018-11-06 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice Finalist for the Costa Biography Award and long listed for the Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence Named a Best Book of 2018 by Esquire and Foreign Policy An Amazon Best Book of November the Guardian Bookshop Book of November and one of the Evening Standard s Books to Read in November Now thanks to Hilsum s deeply reported and passionately written book Marie Colvin has the full accounting that she deserves Joshua Hammer The New York Times The inspiring and devastating biography of Marie Colvin the foremost war reporter of her generation who was killed in Syria in 2012 and whose life story also forms the basis of the feature film A Private War starring Rosamund Pike as Colvin When Marie Colvin was killed in an artillery attack in Homs Syria in 2012 at age fifty six the world lost a fearless and iconoclastic war correspondent who covered the most significant global calamities of her lifetime In Extremis written by her fellow reporter Lindsey Hilsum is a thrilling investigation into Colvin's epic life and tragic death based on exclusive access to her intimate diaries from age thirteen to her death interviews with people from every corner of her life and impeccable research After growing up in a middle class Catholic family on Long Island Colvin studied with the legendary journalist John Hersey at Yale and eventually started working for The Sunday Times of London where she gained a reputation for bravery and compassion as she told the stories of victims of the major conflicts of our time She lost sight in one eye while in Sri Lanka covering the civil war interviewed Gaddafi and Arafat many times and repeatedly risked her life covering conflicts in Chechnya East Timor Kosovo and the Middle East Colvin lived her personal life in extremis too bold driven and complex she was married twice took many lovers drank and smoked and rejected society's expectations for women Despite PTSD she refused to give up reporting Like her hero Martha Gellhorn Colvin was committed to bearing witness to the horrifying truths of war and to shining a light on the profound suffering of ordinary people caught in the midst of conflict Lindsey Hilsum's In Extremis is a devastating and revelatory biography of one of the greatest war correspondents of her generation

The Status of Palestinian Refugees in International Law Alex Takkenberg, 1998 7 Scope of the study Palestinian Refugees in International Law Francesca P. Albanese, Lex Takkenberg, 2020-05-21 The Palestinian refugee question resulting from the events surrounding the birth of the state of Israel seventy years ago remains one of the largest and most protracted refugee crises of the post WWII era Numbering over six million in the Middle East alone Palestinian refugees status varies considerably according to the state or territory hosting them the UN agency assisting them and political circumstances surrounding the Israeli Palestinian conflict these refugees are naturally associated with Despite being foundational to both the experience of the Palestinian refugees and the resolution of their plight international law is often side lined in political discussions concerning their fate This compelling new book building on the seminal contribution of the first edition 1998 offers a clear and comprehensive analysis of various areas of international law including refugee law human rights law humanitarian law the law relating to stateless persons principles related to internally displaced persons as well as notions of international criminal law and probes their relevance to the provision of international protection for Palestinian refugees and their quest for durable solutions

Women's Writing and Muslim Societies Sharif Gemie, 2012-11-15 An analysis of a hundred prominent commercially successful works by women both Muslim and non Muslim concerning Muslim living in the Middle East North Africa Europe the UK and the USA The Muslim World Book Review, 1990 The Palestinian Refugee Problem and the Right of Return Joseph Alpher, Khalil Shiqāqī, 1998 Index of Islamic Literature, 1990 Periodica Islamica, 1991 An Annotated Bibliography of Diaries Printed in English Christopher Sampson Handley, 1997 Nursing Times, 1990 Lebanon C. H. Bleaney, 1991 For Love of Justice Sir John Baynes, 1997 Politics of the Modern Arab World Laleh Khalili, 2009 This four volume collection of cutting edge and canonical scholarship counters the oft cited opinion that studies of Middle Eastern politics are devoid of social scientific theory and method by providing an overview of the state of the scholarship in the field innovations therein and the debates that have advanced knowledge in the field The collection covers the Arab world from Morocco to the borders of Iran with the focus primarily on the twentieth century and especially the post Second World War era By choosing a wide array of authors many of whom are from the region or from the non Anglophone world the full breadth of worldwide scholarship on the modern Arab world is on display The collection defines politics broadly in line with the most innovative current works in the field of political studies to include not only politics at the state level but also the public social and popular domains that define and shape and are in turn defined and shaped by politics

Palestine Diaries Of A Polish Schoolgirl Isabella Moore, 2018-11-06 The first part of this book provides an insight into a privileged life in Kresy Eastern Borderlands of pre war Poland and the fate of its deported inhabitants including Irena the author's mother at the time of the Second World War This is an attempt to show how historical events shape distort and sometimes destroy individual human lives The second and main part of the book contains Irena's diaries from Palestine written over a period of four years In her frequent diary entries she tries to make sense of life events of growing up in the exotic but alien environment of a military boarding school for girls in Nazareth separated from her parents who were involved in the war effort against Nazi Germany These diaries offer a remarkable insight into a bygone era of life inside and outside a unique military school in a country where different nations Arabs Jews English and Polish coexisted peacefully under the hot Palestinian sun
