Documentary Aesthetics in the Long 1960s in Eastern Europe and Beyond, 2023-12-18 This book is the first to deal with documentary aesthetic practices of the post war period in Eastern Europe in a comparative perspective The contributions examine the specific forms and modes of documentary representations and the role they played in the formation of new aesthetic trends during the cultural political transition of the long 1960s This documentary first hand approach to the world aimed to break up unquestioned ideological structures and expose tabooed truths in order to engender much needed social changes New ways of depicting daily life writing testimony or subjective reportage emerged that still shape cultural debates today Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Fehér,2022-12-28 Khrushchev and the Communist World first published in 1984 reviews the Khrushchev era when the legacy of the Stalinist past was partly repudiated and the possibilities of reform within the USSR and the countries of the socialist camp were explored The lessons derived from this exploration by Bloc leaders and Khrushchev s successors unhappily led them to conclude that the scope for such reform was extremely limited Many of Khrushchev s reforms and reorganisation measures were indeed rescinded but the notion had been planted that the naked terror of Stalinist rule and direct centralised command over other socialist states were no longer feasible This book reviews the evidence for this view both in internal terms and also in foreign affairs History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2007-07-18 The third volume in the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe
