[With a Portrait.] Lorenzo RIBER CAMPINS,1948 The Literary Year-book ,1908 The Book Buyer's Manual Putnam, firm, publishers, New York,1853 The Book Buyer's Manual G.P. Putnam & Co,Putnam, firm, publisher's,1852 Poetic Principles and Practice Lloyd Austin,1987 The central theme here is the constant confrontation of theory and practice in the work of Baudelaire Mallarm and Val ry Francophone Literatures Belinda Jack,1996-09-05 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated French texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area The Author as Character A. J. Hoenselaars,1999 Many fictional works have real historical authors as characters Great national literary icons like Virgil and Shakespeare have been fictionalized in novels plays poems movies and operas This fashion might seem typically postmodern the reverse side of the contention that the Author is Dead but this collection of essays shows that the representation of historical authors as characters can boast of a considerable history and may well constitute a genre in its own right This volume brings together a collection of articles on appropriations of historical authors written by experts in a wide range of major Western literatures BOOK JACKET The Life of Joan of Arc Anatole France,1908 A Play Analysis R. J. Cardullo,2015-10-28 Play Analysis A Casebook on Modern Western Drama is a combined play analysis textbook and course companion that contains twelve essays on major dramas from the modern European and American theaters among them Ghosts The Ghost Sonata The Doctor s Dilemma A Man s a Man The Homecoming The Hairy Ape The Front Page Of Mice and Men Our Town The Glass Menagerie and Death of a Salesman Supplementing these essays are a Step by Step Approach to Play Analysis a Glossary of Dramatic Terms Study Guides Topics for Writing and Discussion and bibliographies Written with college students in mind and possibly also advanced high school students these critical essays cover some of the central plays treated in courses on modern Euro American drama and will provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills The author is a close reader committed to a detailed yet objective examination of the structure style imagery and language of a play Moreover he is concerned chiefly with dramatic analysis that can be of benefit not only to playreaders and theatergoers but also to directors designers and even actors that is with analysis of character action dialogue and setting that can be translated into concepts for theatrical production or that can at least provide the kind of understanding of a play with which a theater practitioner could fruitfully quarrel Annual Burns Chronicle and Club

Directory, 1892 Poetry at Stake Carrie Noland, 1999-12-05 Taking seriously Guillaume Apollinaire's wager that twentieth century poets would one day mechanize poetry as modern industry has mechanized the world Carrie Noland explores poetic attempts to redefine the relationship between subjective expression and mechanical reproduction high art and the world of things Noland builds upon close readings to construct a tradition of diverse lyricists from Arthur Rimbaud Blaise Cendrars and Rene Char to contemporary performance artists Laurie Anderson and Patti Smith allied in their concern with the nature of subjectivity in an age of mechanical reproduction Publisher description The First Moderns William R. Everdell, 1997-05-15 Throughout the worlds of art and ideas of science and philosophy Modernism was dawning and with it a new mode of conceptualization Discourse/counter-discourse Richard Terdiman, 1989 Discourse Counter Discourse is situated on the challenging border between cultural history and literary criticism combining the insights of Marxism and semiotics it attempts to delineate the cultural function of texts Focusing on France during a period of remarkable cultural social and political transformation Richard Terdiman examines both the dominant bourgeois discourse novels newspapers and other mass forms of expression and the effort of intellectuals to devise counter discourses to combat it He views the counter discourses created by such principal figures as Flaubert Balzac Daumier Baudelaire Mallarme and Marx not as isolated elements of nineteenth century culture but paradoxically as a vital part of the everyday life of the period Terdiman maintains that an intricate and continuous interplay of the opposing dynamics of stability and destabilization was at the center of and gave direction to historical and cultural change Incorporating the work of such cultural theoreticians as Bakhtin Gramsci Bourdieu Foucault and Derrida Terdiman explores discursive conflict in relations between literature and the visual arts the novel and political philosophy and elite literature and popular culture He asserts that to understand the complex engagement between the texts of a cultural canon and those of its subversion we must broaden traditional notions of the sign to include not just linguistic but also social difference the forms of society's work family structure gender roles and educational and political organization he says all live and struggle within the signs of which every text is made Richard Terdiman's model discourse against counter discourse reveals the forces and tensions that shape cultural life His book will interest not only students and scholars of French literature but literary theorists cultural and intellectual historians and

Marxist scholars in a number of disciplines Paris Hope Mirrlees, 2020-04-28 Paris A Poem is a daring experimental psychogeographic long poem written by the British writer Hope Mirrlees Offering a snapshot of post war Paris it describes a journey through the city from day to night by means of innovative and playful typography collage and fragmentation This would be a centenary edition reproducing the original design and setting of the very first published by Leonard and Virginia Woolf at the Hogarth Press in 1920 Collaborative Form Thomas Jensen Hines, 1991 Collaborative Form attempts to show the nature and limits of works of art that are made up of two or more artistic forms The first task of this book is to analyze and interpret a set of such combinations Each chapter treats one collaborative work and attempts to show that the principles of collaboration are the same whether the components are poetry and graphic works as in Lettera Amorosa by Rene Char and George Braque poetry and music as in Herzgewachse by Maurice Maeterlinck and Arnold Schoenberg or more complex sets that include painting music dance lighting and drama as in Der gelbe Klang by Wassily Kandinsky Morder Hoffnung der frauen by Oskar Kokoschka and Triad by Alwin Nikolais Hines breaks down disciplinary barriers and then emphasizes the effects of the interactions between the arts The first step in methodology is that of refusing to make a priori commitments to the critical methodologies of the arts involved Each art is treated from its own perspective and each interpretation attends to interactions of the arts rather than to the contribution of any one art Once the collaborative works are examined the book shows that such works are similar to other art forms They obey the laws of temporal necessity non addition multiple interpretation and unity that any poem painting or musical composition might be said to obey Unlike other arts though collaborative forms are unique examples of the combinative effects of the arts In the process of interpreting individual works and attempting to summarize this form we are forced to see beyond the conventions of the constituent arts
