

Process and Reality

- An Essay in Cosmology
  - subtitle given by Alfred North Whitehead to his celebrated Gifford lectures:
    - PROCESS & REALITY (PR) at Edinburgh in the session of 1927-28.
- His cosmology is developed in terms of a Categorical Scheme
  - Described as his speculative philosophy.
  - The foundation of his whole scheme of cosmology is the Category of the Ultimate.
  - A category in process terms is a typing and this fundamental category of his “expresses the general principle presupposed in the three more special categories”

Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead, 2018-01-05 This is another book by English mathematician and philosopher Alfred North Whitehead best known as the defining figure of the philosophical school known as process philosophy which today has found application to a wide variety of disciplines including ecology theology education physics biology economics and psychology among other areas Beginning in the late 1910s and early 1920s Whitehead gradually turned his attention from mathematics to philosophy of science and finally to metaphysics He developed a comprehensive metaphysical system which radically departed from most of western philosophy Whitehead argued that reality consists of processes rather than material objects and that processes are best defined by their relations with other processes thus rejecting the theory that reality is fundamentally constructed by bits of matter that exist independently of one another Today Whitehead's philosophical works particularly Process and Reality are regarded as the foundational texts of process philosophy

A Key to Whitehead's Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead, 1981-09-15 Whitehead's magnum opus is as important as it is difficult It is the only work in which his metaphysical ideas are stated systematically and completely and his metaphysics are the heart of his philosophical system as a whole Sherburne has rearranged the text in a way designed to lead the student logically and coherently through the intricacies of the system without losing the vigor of Whitehead's often brilliant prose The Key renders Process and Reality

pedagogically accessible for the first time Journal of Religion Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead, 1929

PROCESS AND REALITY ALFRED N. WHITEHEAD, 1929 Process, Reality, and the Power of Symbols M.

Code, 2007-06-28 Following A N Whitehead this book takes up the principal challenge facing a natural philosopher who wishes to engage with Nature while rescuing both Life and Thought from materialistic approaches which rob them of their quicknesses Selecting certain insights and intuitions from the writings of Peirce Coleridge Deleuze and Nietzsche the author proffers a remedy for the pervasive nihilism of the moderns which illustrates Deleuze's suggestion that philosophy should be imaged as a dynamic collage that is forever in the making Routledge Revivals: God, Literature and Process Thought

(2002) Darren Middleton, 2018-02-01 Originally published in 2002 God Literature and Process Thought looks at the use of God in writing as a part of the creative advance immersed in the processes of reality and affected by events in the world This edited collection outlines and promotes the novel view that there is much to be gained when those who value the insights of process thought encounter the many and varied writers of literature and literary theory It also celebrates the notion of process poesis a fresh way of reflecting theologically and philosophically that takes account of literary forms and promises to transform creatively the very structure of process thought today Whitehead and God Laurence F. Wilmot, 2006-01-01 This book is intended as a contribution towards the renewal of theological discourse in the final quarter of the twentieth century It presents the findings from personal research into the development of the concept of God in the philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead and the application of his conceptual tools in a re-examination of the writings of some fourth century Christian theologians in their efforts to provide answers to the problems posed for the Church by Arianism The research was prompted by Whitehead's recommendations addressed to theologians in Adventures of Ideas Process and Reality Alfred North Whitehead (Philosopher, Mathematician, Great Britain, United States), 1936 Subjectivity, Process, and Rationality

Michel Weber, Pierfrancesco Basile, 2013-05-02 This volume gathers prominent international scholars to celebrate the complex legacy of Reiner Wiehl whose work has been instrumental in bringing together the European tradition of prima philosophia as represented by Plato Spinoza Kant and Hegel with the adventurous speculative renewal of the twentieth century by Alfred North Whitehead Grouped into four sections Process and Universals Nature and Subjectivity Ethics and Civilization Psychology and Phenomenology the fifteen papers collected in this book cover a range of topics which is as wide and as intertwined as Wiehl's own expertise The common thread running through all contributions is the problematic nature of subjectivity and especially of its process slant which easily eludes the static and abstract schemes of rationality

Process Thought and Roman Catholicism John Becker, Marc A. Pugliese, 2022-03-21 This collection of essays explores convergences and divergences between process thought and Roman Catholicism with the goal of identifying reasons for why process philosophy and theology has not had the same impact in Roman Catholic circles as in Protestantism and of constructively navigating avenues of promising engagement between Process thought and Roman Catholicism In creatively considering the Roman Catholic tradition from the vantage point of Process thought different theoretical perspectives are brought to bear on Catholic characteristics of historical theology fundamental theology systematic theology moral theology social justice and theology of religions While the contributors draw upon a broad range of resources from the disciplines of the physical and social sciences philosophy and ethics from a process perspective the primary methodology employed is theological reflection      The Old Testament and Process Theology Robert Karl Gnuse,2016-03-08 Using the insights of process theology Gnuse explores the Old Testament beginning with the categories of classic Old Testament theology revelation suffering creation covenant justice law and salvation      The Films of Stan Brakhage in the American

Tradition of Ezra Pound, Gertrude Stein and Charles Olson R. Bruce Elder,2011-08-26 Since the late 1950s Stan Brakhage has been in the forefront of independent filmmaking His body of work some seventy hours is one of the largest of any filmmaker in the history of cinema and one of the most diverse Probably the most widely quoted experimental filmmaker in history his films typify the independent cinema Until now despite well deserved acclaim there has been no comprehensive study of Brakhage s oeuvre The Films of Stan Brakhage in the American Tradition fills this void R Bruce Elder delineates the aesthetic parallels between Brakhage s films and a broad spectrum of American art from the 1920s through the 1960s This book is certain to stir the passions of those interested in artistic critique and interpretation in its broadest terms      The Divine Matrix Joseph A. Bracken,2006-03-29 Dialogue among religions has always been challenging Today the questions are becoming more fundamental are the various traditions Buddhist Christian Hindu Tao even talking about the same thing when they speak of Nature of God Emptiness or Brahma The Divine Matrix represents a bold scholarly attempt to provide a framework for discussing these and other questions that will keep the interreligious dialogue project from grinding to a halt In The Divine Matrix philosopher and theologian Joseph Bracken first names the idea that the Infinite is the transcendent source and goal of human activity to be the notion common to virtually all the major world religions He suggests that the Infinite is prototypically experienced not as an entity but as an ongoing activity the principle of activity for all beings God included This idea is consistent with the notion of eternal and continuous motion in Aristotle with the act of being actus essendi in the theology of Thomas Aquinas and Meister Eckert and with the ground of being of Schelling and Heidegger as well as with Whitehead s definition of creativity Bracken goes on to show that this idea is implicit in descriptions of Brahman in the Hindu Upanishads in the experience of pratitya samutpada dependent co arising in classical Buddhism and in descriptions of the Tao in Tao Te Ching and Chuang Tzu The Divine Matrix proposes that the Infinite thus identified be understood as a nondual reality an activity that does not exist in itself but only in the entities which it thereby empowers to exist This Bracken argues becomes the key to understanding ultimate reality within the different world religions

Reciprocal Causality in an Event-Filled World Joseph A. Bracken, S.J.,2022-03-04 Given the current sense of helplessness in dealing with environmental change and other urgent issues a new world view is needed that emphasizes the unique contribution that individual citizens can make to the common good as opposed to their individual needs and desires In a recent encyclical on the environment Pope Francis set forth reasons from Scripture and Church teaching for this shift in perspective but he did not provide a philosophically based foundation for this change of heart To fill that gap Joseph Bracken examines key writings of process oriented philosophers like Henri Bergson and Alfred North Whitehead along with systems oriented thinkers like Ludwig von Bertalanffy and Ervin Laszlo to create a systems oriented understanding of the God world relation

Christianity and Process Thought Joseph A. Bracken, 2008-03-16 Joseph A Bracken S J introduces the process relational metaphysics of Alfred North Whitehead and other process theologians as he tries to reconcile the sometimes conflicting views of traditional Christian doctrines and the modern scientific world To present thi material in an accessible manner to a wider audience Bracken reworks Whitehead s model of the God world relationship showing that God is involved in an ongoing ever changing relationship with humans and other creatures He also discusses the work of other contemporary theologians to help Christians come to terms with their role in our multi dimensional pluralistic society Bracken examines divine and human creativity the collective power of good and evil divine providence and human freedom prayer altruism and the basic question What is truth He shows how Whitehead s process thought approach to these issues can in fact harmonize traditional Christian beliefs and contemporary culture benefiting both faith and reason Understanding the God world relationship subtly influences our attitude toward ourselves toward other human beings and indeed toward all of God s creatures says Bracken His revision of Whitehead s metaphysical vision in terms of a cosmic community shows how modern views of the world and God can be accepted and kept in balance with the traditional biblical views found in the Christian faith and how this balance can help Christians make better choices in a world shaped both by contemporary natural science and by traditional Christian spirituality
