Process Praxis And Transcendence:

Process, Praxis, and Transcendence James L. Marsh, 1999-01-28 Presents a North American philosophy of liberation that defends both metaphysics and philosophy of religion and acts as a critique of neo imperialism Process, Praxis, and Transcendence James L. Marsh, 1999-01-01 Process Praxis and Transcendence is a North American philosophy of liberation that defends both metaphysics and philosophy of religion The book moves from an existential phenomenology of the knowing and choosing subject through affirmation of a processive and liberating Christ to a critique and overcoming of neo imperialism Its ultimate theme explores what the appropriate theory and praxis of liberation is for those of us living in the center of the empire in North America and Western Europe New Critical Theory William S. Wilkerson, Jeffrey Paris, 2001-11-19 New Critical Theory surveys contemporary leftist thought while introducing the tenets of this new form of critical theory Beginning with an exploration of the relationship between Marxism Habermas and the politics of identity William S Wilkerson and Jeffrey R Paris present a collection that critiques the globalization of capital The development of personality appears as subject to socialized standards in an age of global capitalism Only after scrutinizing the effects of such a system can liberation be found The essays within join Critical Theory with postmodern insights on language and subjectivity to provide a more comprehensive view of emancipatory social theory Through this and other reflections on critical race gender and queer theories Wilkerson and Paris emerge with an encompassing volume defining New Critical Theory Transcendent Experience, Process, and Praxis Within the 'Transcendence Movement' Keith Beasley, 2013

Unjust Legality James L. Marsh, 2001 This book is an interpretation and critique of Habermas's philosophy as contained in his book Between Facts and Norms The main argument is that while Habermas does succeed in laying out foundations conceptual and methodological for the philosophy of law the book is flawed by a fundamental contradiction between a democracy ruled by law and capitalism Visit our website for sample chapters Living Traditions and Universal Conviviality Roland Faber, Santiago Slabodsky, 2016-03-03 The World Parliament of Religions adopted the view that there will not be peace in this world without including peace among religions Yet even with the unified force of the world's religions and wisdom traditions this cannot be accomplished without justice among people In one way or another unity among religions as based on justice and the will to accept the other's religions and even irreligiosity as means of justice will not prevail without an internal and external spiritual theological philosophical and practical investigation into the very reasons for religious strife and fanaticism as well as the resources that people cultures religions and wisdom traditions might provide to disentangle them from the injustices of their host regimes and to seek the balance that leads to a measure of universal fairness among the multiplicity of religious and non religious expressions of humanity Conviviality expresses the depth and breadth of living together which itself can be understood as a translation of a central term of Whitehead's philosophy and the process tradition concrescence growing together becoming concrete as it is recently and increasingly used in different discourses to name the concrete community of difference of individuals cultures and religions in appreciation of the mutual inclusiveness of their lives This book seeks to bring together experts from different religious and non religious traditions and spiritual persuasions to suggest ways in which the living wisdom traditions might contribute to and transform themselves into a universal conviviality among the people cultures and religions of this world for a common future It wishes to test the resources that we can contribute to this concurrent and urgent matter aware of Whitehead s call for a radical transformation of power and violence in thought and action as perhaps the ultimate theory of conflict resolution

Critique of Dialectical Reason, Vol. 2 Jean-Paul Sartre,2020-05-05 Does history produce discernible meaning Are human struggles intelligible These questions form the starting point for the second volume of Sartre s Critique of Dialectical Reason Drafted in 1958 and published in France in 1985 this magisterial work first appeared in English in 1991 and now reappears with a major new introduction by Fredric Jameson Volume Two s theoretical framework is a logical extension of the predecessor s As in Volume One Sartre proceeds by moving from the simple to the complex from individual combat through a perceptive study of boxing to the struggle of subgroups within an organized group form and finally to social struggle with an extended analysis of the Bolshevik Revolution The book concludes with a forceful reaffirmation of dialectical reason of the dialectic as that which is truly irreducible in action

Faith, Resistance, and the Future James L. Marsh,Anna J. Brown,2012 The book presents Daniel Berrigan s contribution and challenge to Catholic social thought The aim of this book is for the first time to make Berrigan s thought and life available to the academic Catholic community and to activists so that a fruitful interaction takes place

American Immanence Michael S. Hogue,2018-04-24 The Anthropocene marks the age of significant human impact on the Earth s ecosystems dramatically underscoring the reality that human life is not separate from nature but an integral part of it Culturally ecologically and socially destructive practices such as resource extraction have led to this moment of peril These practices however implicate more than industrial and economic systems they are built into the political theology of American exceptionalism compelling us to reimagine human social and political life on Earth American Immanence seeks to replace the dominant American political tradition which has resulted in global social economic and environmental injustices with a new form of political theology its dominant feature a radical democratic politics Michael S Hogue explores the potential of a dissenting immanent tradition in American religion based on philosophical traditions of naturalism process thought and pragmatism By integrating systems theory and concepts of vulnerability and resilience into the lineages of American immanence he articulates a political theology committed to democracy as an emancipatory and equitable way of life Rather than seeking to redeem or be redeemed Hogue argues that the vulnerability of life in the Anthropocene calls us to build radically democratic communities of responsibility resistance and resilience American

Immanence integrates an immanent theology of by and for the planet with a radical democratic politics of by and for the people

Communities of Individuals Michael J. R. Cross, 2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2001 This book examines the liberal communitarian debate from a new perspective Communitarians argue that liberal theory neglects the significance of communities for the lives of their members An examination of that argument reveals that there are deficiencies in the communitarian account of community Identifying and remedying those deficiencies is the key concern of this book Uniquely this book addresses the deficiencies using Sartre's anarchist theory derived largely but not exclusively from an interpretation of the Critique of Dialectical Reason Sartre champions the individual yet criticises liberalism The tension arising from these two apparently disparate positions makes for a fruitful argument enhanced by the connections made with Aristotelian and feminist theory Hobbes and Rousseau Finally a method is developed for inquiring into the nature of associations which it is argued should interest communitarians concerned to avoid deficiencies in their account of community

In Deference to the Other Jim Kanaris, Mark J. Doorley, 2012-02-01 In Deference to the Other brings contemporary continental thought into conversation with that of Bernard Lonergan 1904-1984 the Jesuit philosopher and theologian This is an opportune moment to open such a dialogue philosophers and theologians indebted to Lonergan have increasingly found themselves challenged by the insights of thinkers typically dubbed postmodern while postmodernists most notably Jacques Derrida have begun to ask the God question While Lonergan was not a continental philosopher neither was he an analytic philosopher Concerned with both epistemology and cognition his systematic and hermeneutic like proposals resonate with the concerns of philosophers such as Derrida Foucault Levinas and Kristeva Contributors to this volume find insight and affiliation between Lonergan's thought and contemporary continental thought in a wide ranging work that engages the philosophical problems of authenticity self appropriation ethics and the human subject

Pugliese, 2022-03-21 This collection of essays explores convergences and divergences between process thought and Roman Catholicism with the goal of identifying reasons for why process philosophy and theology has not had the same impact in Roman Catholic circles as in Protestantism and of constructively navigating avenues of promising engagement between Process thought and Roman Catholicism In creatively considering the Roman Catholic tradition from the vantage point of Process thought different theoretical perspectives are brought to bear on Catholic characteristics of historical theology fundamental theology systematic theology moral theology social justice and theology of religions While the contributors draw upon a broad range of resources from the disciplines of the physical and social sciences philosophy and ethics from a process perspective the primary methodology employed is theological reflection Sartre, Foucault, and Historical Reason, Volume One

Thomas R. Flynn, 2008-04-15 Sartre and Foucault were two of the most prominent and at times mutually antagonistic philosophical figures of the twentieth century And nowhere are the antithetical natures of their existentialist and poststructuralist philosophies more apparent than in their disparate approaches to historical understanding A history thought Foucault should be a kind of map a comparative charting of structural transformations and displacements But for Sartre authentic historical understanding demanded a much more personal and committed narrative a kind of interpretive diary of moral choices and risks compelled by critical necessity and an exacting reality Sartre's history a rational history of individual lives and their intrinsic social worlds was in essence immersed in biography In Volume One of this authoritative two volume work Thomas R Flynn conducts a pivotal and comprehensive reconstruction of Sartrean historical theory and provocatively anticipates the Foucauldian counterpoint to come in Volume Two Wisdom and the Renewal of Catholic Theology

Thomas P. Harmon, Roger W. Nutt, 2016-10-20 For more than fifty years Fr Matthew L Lamb has been one of the major figures in American Catholic theology through his writing teaching and involvement in scholarly societies Over a decade ago Fr Lamb moved from the Department of Theology at Boston College to develop the graduate programs in theology at Ave Maria University in response to what he identified as the widespread decline in theological education Twelve years into their operation the graduate programs in theology have begun to produce junior scholars who have attained appointments in universities and seminaries across the United States In Wisdom and the Renewal of Catholic Theology Thomas P Harmon and Roger W Nutt have brought together some of this first generation of Ave Maria graduates to produce a collection of essays to honor their teacher and the architect of their theological education American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly, 1999

Flood Risk and Social Justice Zoran Vojinovic, Michael B. Abbott, 2012-03-05 Flood Risk and Social Justice is a response to the rising significance of floods and flood related disasters worldwide as an initiative to promote a socially just approach to the problems of flood risk It integrates the human social and the technological components to provide a holistic view This book treats flooding as a multi dimensional human and natural world tragedy that must be accommodated using all the social and technological means that can be mobilised before during and after the flooding event It covers socially just flood risk mitigation practices which necessitate a wide range of multidisciplinary approaches starting from social and wider environmental needs including feedback cycles between human needs and technological means Flood Risk and Social Justice looks at how to judge whether a risk is acceptable or not by addressing an understanding of social and phenomenological considerations rather than simple calculations of probabilities multiplied by unwanted outcomes and their balancing between costs and benefits It is argued that the present flood management practice should be largely replaced by the social justice approach where particular attention is given to deciding what is the right thing to do within a much wider context Thus it insists upon the validity of modes of human understanding which cannot be addressed within the limited context of modern science Flood Risk and Social Justice is written to support a wide range of audiences and seeks to improve the dialogue between researchers and practitioners from different disciplines including post graduate engineering environmental and social science students industry practitioners academics planners environmental advocacy groups and environmental law professionals who have a strong interest in a new kind of social justice work that can act as a continuous counter balance to the various mechanisms that unceasingly give rise to profound injustices More information about this book can be found in this article written for the WaterWiki by the author <http://www.iwaterwiki.org/xwiki/bin/view/Articles/FloodRiskandSocialJustice> Authors Zoran Vojinovic is Associate Professor at the UNESCO IHE Institute for Water Education Delft the Netherlands with almost 20 years of consulting and research experience in various aspects of water industry in New Zealand Australia Asia Europe Central South America and the Caribbean Michael B Abbott is Emeritus Professor at the UNESCO IHE Institute for Water Education Delft the Netherlands and a Director of the European Institute for Industrial Leadership in Brussels He founded and developed the disciplines of Computational Hydraulics and Hydroinformatics and co founded the Journal of Hydroinformatics with Professor Roger Falconer

Liberation, Method and Dialogue Roberto S. Goizueta, 2018-06-27 This book analyzes the theological method of liberation theologian Enrique Dussel and by comparing it with the meta method of Bernard Lonergan establishes a paradigm for international theological dialogue The author suggests that Dussel's non reductionist understanding of liberation and Lonergan's understanding of the subject as subject provide a methodological foundation for critical dialogue between Latin American and North American theologians The methodological maturation of liberation theology rehearsed in this study suggests how the insights of Latin American theology demand the development of an indigenous form of North American theology of liberation
