

Mark was trying to decide if he should adopt a dog. He decided to ask himself a few important questions before he made up his mind. First, he asked himself, "What kind of dog do I want?" He knew that young dogs have lots of energy! A puppy must be taught many things. Older, trained dogs can be easier to adopt. An older dog should already be housebroken.

Next, Mark asked, "Do I have enough time for a dog?" Dogs require lots of care. Most dogs like plenty of attention. All dogs need to play and get exercise. Walking a dog daily is important.

Finally, Mark asked himself, "Can I afford a dog?" Dogs can be expensive. Dogs need food, flea control, and trips to the vet. With good care, dogs can live a long life. Mark had a lot to think about. Soon he would make a decision.
