Welsh, 2010-02-23 Since films were first produced adapted works have predominantly borrowed primarily from traditional texts such as novels and plays Likewise the study of film adaptations has also been fairly traditional rarely venturing beyond a comparison of the source material to its often less revered counterpart Redefining Adaptation Studies breaks new ground in showing the range of possibilities that transcend the literature film paradigm These essays focus on the idea of adaptation and what it means in different socio political contexts Above all this collection shows how cultural and political factors determine the meaning of the term and its potential for developing new approaches to learning The contributors to this volume look at adaptation in different contexts and develop new ways to approach adaptation not just as a literature through film issue but as something which can be used to develop other skills such as creative writing and personal and social skills Aimed at teachers in high schools and universities at the under and postgraduate levels this volume not only suggests how adaptation might be used in different disciplines but how it might improve the learning experience for teachers and students alike      State of Emergency Dominic Sandbrook, 2010 In the early 1970s Britain seemed to be tottering on the brink of the abyss Under Edward Heath the optimism of the Sixties had become a distant memory This book recreates the gaudy schizophrenic atmosphere of the early Seventies the world of Enoch Powell and Tony Benn David Bowie and Brian Clough Germaine Greer and Mary Whitehouse      Marketing Literature C. difference as ideas about identity authority and belonging were tested and contested By placing a diverse selection of texts alongside those of the established canon of Movement and Angry writing a literary culture of true diversity and depth is brought into view The volume characterises the 1950s as a time of confrontation with a range of concerns still avidly debated today including immigration education the challenging behaviour of youth nuclear threat the post industrial and post imperial legacy a consumerist economy and a feminist movement hampered by the perceivedly comprehensive nature of its recent success Contrary to Jimmy Porter s defeatist judgement on his era in John Osborne s 1956 play Look Back in Anger the volume upholds such concerns as good brave causes indeed The Man Who Got Carter Andrew Spicer,A.T.
