The Forest in Medieval German Literature Albrecht Classen,2015-06-03

By pursuing an ecocritical reading The Forest in Medieval German Literature examines passages in medieval German texts where protagonists operated in the forest and found themselves either in conflictual situations or in refuge By probing the way the individual authors dealt with the forest illustrating how their characters fared in this sylvan space the role of the forest proved to be of supreme importance in understanding the fundamental relationship between humans and nature The medieval forest almost always introduced an epistemological challenge how to cope in life or how to find one's way in this natural maze By approaching these narratives through modern ecocritical issues that are paired with premodern perspectives we gain a solid and far reaching understanding of how medieval concepts can aid in a better understanding of human society and nature in its historical context This book revisits some of the best and lesser known examples of medieval German literature and the critical approach used here will allow us to recognize the importance of medieval literature for a profound reassessment of our modern existence with respect to our own forests

Reimagining Mobilities across the Humanities Lucio Biasiori,Federico Mazzini,Chiara Rabbiosi,2023-01-31

Volume 1 Theories Methods and Ideas explores the mobility of ideas through time and space and how interdisciplinary theories and methodological approaches used in mobilities studies can be profitably utilised within the humanities and social sciences Through a series of short chapters mobility is employed as an elastic inclusive and multifaceted concept across various disciplines to shed light on a geographically and chronologically broad range of issues and case studies In doing so the concept of mobility is positioned as a powerful catalyst for historical change and as a fruitful approach to research in the humanities and social sciences Like its sister volume this volume is edited and written by members of the Centre for Advanced Studies in Mobility and the Humanities MoHu at the Department of Historical and Geographical Sciences and The Ancient World DiSSGeA of the University of Padua Italy The structure of the book mirrors the Theories and Methods and Ideas thematic research clusters of the Centre Afterwords from leading scholars from other institutions synthesise and reflect upon the findings of each section This volume together with Volume 2 Objects People and Texts makes a compelling case for the use of mobility studies as a research framework in the humanities and social sciences As such it will be of interest to students and researchers in various disciplines
