Governance, Decentralization and Reform in China, India and Russia Jean-Jacques Dethier, 2000-09-30 The papers in Governance Decentralization and Reform in China India and Russia which were presented at a ZEF conference in May 1999 deal with three critical aspects of governance in China India and Russia political reforms at the local level fiscal reforms in intergovernmental relations and legal reforms The volume collects contributions from 24 outstanding economists political scientists and legal specialists including Vito Tanzi Daniel Treisman Pranab Bardham Jean Dr ze Katharina Pistor and Kathryn Hendley Distorted economic and political incentive structures capture of the state by powerful elites and inoperative legal systems are factors that have greatly complicated the political economy of reform in these three large countries with heterogeneous populations Addressing these political and institutional issues is essential to designing good policies One particular goal of this volume is to bring together new analytical insights and empirical evidence on governance a new and growing field of research The volume is divided into three parts fiscal federalism decentralization and provision of local public goods and legal reforms Part I discusses the role of incentives in fiscal federalism The papers analyze the effects of different revenue sharing mechanisms between different levels of government in particular the effects on regional growth and inequality and the incentives that local politicians may have to provide public goods depending on fiscal arrangements with the central government In adapting their governance structures all three countries have been striving for increased decentralization But the theoretical literature suggests that in a decentralized setting second best solutions must prevail it is not possible to ensure incentive compatibility simultaneously with optimal allocation of resources and a balanced budget in providing public goods Part II discusses taxation and public expenditure management both as a political and as a budgetary process Two questions which the papers address are Does participation of stakeholders and accountability of public authorities improve economic and social outcomes Does better governance in the provision of basic goods such as health care and education improve equity While decentralization is often seen as a way to improve the quality of public services rule based governance is viewed as a safeguard against the arbitrariness of public officials and weaknesses in law enforcement The five papers in Part III focus on the rule of law the role of the judicial system in establishing a rule based economy and the effectiveness of legal institutions during the transition from socialism to a market economy They present overviews of current legal reform issues in the three countries and discuss various conceptual approaches to addressing legal reform issues

Modern State Intervention in the Era of Globalisation Nikolaos Karagiannis, Zagros Madjd-Sadjadi, 2007-06-26 Modern State Intervention in the Era of Globalisation is a thoughtful and well researched assessment of the evolving role of the state in the contemporary world economy This work is provocative because it goes against the predominant arguments in favor of a minimal state as commonly asserted by neoclassical economics Instead Karagiannis and Madjd Sadjadi think outside of the box and produce both theoretical arguments and evidence from important cases such as the EU Singapore and Hong Kong to support the idea of a viable and continuing role for the Developmental State The scholarship underlying this very readable book which includes contemporary material as well as ancient economic thought is truly impressive Readers will be left with much to reconsider about the benefits of globalisation Patrick James University of Southern California US
