Kofi Agawu,2025-03-25 An award winning account of the importance of semiotic play in Classic instrumental music including that of Mozart Haydn and Beethoven Of all the repertoires of Western Art music none is as explicitly listener oriented as that of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Yet few attempts to analyze the so called Classic Style have embraced the semiotic implications of this fact In Playing with Signs Kofi Agawu proposes a listener oriented theory of Classic instrumental music that encompasses its two most fundamental communicative dimensions expression and structure Units of expression defined in reference to topoi are shown here to interact with confront and merge into units of structure defined in terms of the rhetorical conventions of beginning continuing and ending The book draws on examples from works by Mozart Haydn and Beethoven to show that the explicitly referential even theatrical surface of Classic music derives from a play with signs Although addressed primarily to readers interested in musical analysis the book opens fruitful avenues for further research into musical semiotics aesthetics and Classicism
