Lanyi,1966     Readings in World Politics ,1952     International/intertextual Relations James Der Derian,1989     The Power of Emotions in World Politics Simon Koschut,2020-02-14 This book argues that the link between emotions and discourse provides a new and promising framework to theorize and empirically analyse power relationships in world politics Examining the ways in which discourse evokes reveals and engages emotions the expert contributors argue that emotions are not irrational forces but have a pattern to them that underpins social relations However these are also power relations and their articulation as socially constructed ways of feeling and expressing emotions represent a key force in either sustaining or challenging the social order This volume goes beyond the emotions matter approach to offer specific ways to integrate the consideration of emotion into existing research. It offers a novel integration of emotion discourse and power and shows how emotion discourses establish, assert, challenge or reinforce power and status difference. It will be particularly useful to university researchers, doctoral candidates and advanced students engaged in scholarship on emotions and discourse analysis in International Relations.

On World Politics A. Astrov, 2005-08-11 This book outlines an idea of world politics as an activity of thinking and speaking about the conditions of world order. World order is understood not as an arrangement of entities but a complex of variously situated activities conducted by individuals as members of diverse associations of their own. Within contemporary International Relations it entails a theoretical position, neotraditionalism, as a reformulation of the initial traditionalist approach in the wake of rationalism and subsequent reflectivist critique. Power in World Politics Felix Berenskoetter, M. J. Williams, 2007-11-06 Featuring contributions from both upcoming and distinguished scholars including Steven Lukes, Joseph Nye and Stefano Guzzini, this volume explores the nature and location of power in international politics through a variety of conceptual lenses. The Globalization of World Politics John Baylis, Steve Smith, Patricia

Owens, 2017 This title provides an introduction to international relations (IR) supporting over 300,000 students taking their first steps in IR and beyond. The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Theory, Modern Power, World Politics Nevzat

Soguk, Scott G. Nelson, 2016-04-28 Deliberately eschewing disciplinary and temporal boundaries, this volume makes a major contribution to the de-traditionalization of political thinking within the discourses of international relations. Collecting the works of twenty-five theorists, this Ashgate Research Companion engages some of the most pressing aspects of political thinking in world politics today. The authors explore theoretical constitutions, critiques and affirmations of uniquely modern forms of power, past and present. Among the themes and dynamics examined are textual appropriation and representation, materiality and capital formation, geopolitical dimensions of ecological crises, connections between representations of violence and securitization, subjectivity and genderization, counter-globalization politics, constructivism, biopolitics, post-colonial politics and theory, as well as the political prospects of emerging civic and cosmopolitan orders in a time of national, religious and secular polarization. Radically different in their approaches, the authors critically assess the discourses of IR as interpretive frames that are indebted to the historical formation of concepts and to particular negotiations of power that inform the main methodological practices usually granted primacy in the field. Students as well as seasoned scholars seeking to challenge accepted theoretical frameworks will find in these chapters fresh insights into contemporary world political problems and new resources for their critical interrogation. Foundations of National Power, 1957 International Security Dannreuther, 2008-05-12 The Everyday Artefacts of World Politics Caitlin Hamilton, 2021-09-23 This book examines everyday artefacts of world politics: the things that everyday people make that tell stories about how the world works. The author argues that people engage in a unique form of multimodal storytelling about the world, their place in the world and the world they want to live in through the artefacts that they make Introducing a novel approach to artefactual analysis the book explores textiles jewellery and pottery and urges scholars of global politics to take these artefacts seriously Based on original research this book is inherently interdisciplinary drawing on concepts and approaches from across the humanities and social sciences including archaeology history sociology world politics anthropology and material studies It will therefore be of interest to a wide range of readers
