Primitivism and Twentieth-century Art Jack D. Flam, Miriam Deutch, 2003 This is a much needed important collection a goldmine of sources for scholars and students The texts articulate the key Primitivist aesthetic discourses of the period offering crucial insight into the complex and always changing nexus between culture politics and representation Because of the breadth of the materials covered and the controversies they raise this anthology is one of the all too rare volumes that not only will provide reference materials for years to come but also will feature centrally in classroom discussions Suzanne Preston Blier author of African Vodun Art Psychology and Power For almost a century art historians have fretted about the notion of primitivism in the arts This comprehensive in both senses of the word anthology is a peerless source of the history of responses to works categorized as primitive In its range the book touches upon all the troubling questions formal anthropological political historical that have bedeviled the study of the arts of Oceania Africa and North and South America and provides the grounds at last for intelligent pursuit of keener distinctions I regard this book as a superb contribution to the study of Modern art in fact indispensable Dore Ashton author of Noguchi East and West An extraordinarily useful and complete collection of primary documents many translated for the first time into English and almost all unlikely to be encountered elsewhere without serious effort Its five sections each with a lively and scholarly introduction reveal the diverse views of artists and writers on primitive art from Matisse Picasso and Fry to many far less known and sometimes surprising figures The book also uncovers the politics and aesthetics of the major museum exhibitions that gained acceptance for art that had been both reviled and mythologized Recent texts included are all germane This book will be invaluable for any college course on the topic Shelly Errington author of The Death of Authentic Primitive Art and Other Tales of Progress An exceptionally valuable anthology of seventy documents most heretofore unavailable in English on the ongoing controversies surrounding Primitivism and Modern art Insightfully chosen and annotated the collection is brilliantly introduced by Jack Flam s essay on the historical progression contexts and cultural complexities of more than one hundred years ideas about Primitivism Rich timely illuminating Herbert M Cole author of Icons Ideals and Power in the Art of Africa Little Art Colony and US Modernism Gano Geneva M. Adventures in the Arts Marsden Hartley, 2011-10 Working at a pivotal time in art history artist Marsden Hartley was in the center of it all In his classic collection of essays Adventures in the Arts he offers curious readers a friendly tour of his interests personal experiences and close acquaintances so many of which proved to be the most important people and ideas of the time From Impressionism and American Art to the birth of Modernism and the spread of photography Hartley offers us a familiarity with and an understanding of twentieth century art from its very foundations The papers in this book are not intended in any way to be professional treatises They must be viewed in the light of entertaining conversations Their possible value lies in their directness of impulse and not in weight of argument I could not wish to go into the qualities of art more deeply A reaction to be pleasant must be simple This is the apology I have to offer Reactions then through direct impulse and not essays by means of stiffened analysis Marsden Hartley Art for an Undivided Earth Jessica L. Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley, 2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists Francis Bacon Joseph Beuys Robert Gober and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death Bacon's works invite fresh readings of the New Testament's narration of the betrayal of Christ and Beuys' works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war Gober's immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology the Visual Arts Material Religion and Religious Studies

Subcommittee on International Communications, 1945 Angel De Cora, Karen Thronson, and the Art of Place Elizabeth Sutton, 2020-03-16 Angel De Cora c 1870-1919 was a Native Ho-Chunk artist who received relative acclaim during her lifetime Karen Thronson 1850-1929 was a Norwegian settler housewife who created crafts and folk art in obscurity along with the other women of her small immigrant community The immigration of Thronson and her family literally maps over the De Cora family's forced migration across Wisconsin Iowa and onto the plains of Nebraska and Kansas Tracing the parallel lives of these two women artists at the turn of the twentieth century art historian Elizabeth Sutton reveals how their stories intersected and diverged in the American Midwest By examining the creations of these two artists Sutton shows how each woman produced art or handicrafts that linked her new home to her homeland Both women had to navigate and negotiate between asserting their authentic self and the expectations placed on them by others in their new locations The result is a fascinating story of two women that speaks to universal themes of Native displacement settler conquest and the connection between art and place
