Science Fiction Before 1900 Paul K. Alkon, 2013-04-15 Paul Alkon analyzes several key works that mark the most significant phases in the early evolution of science fiction including Frankenstein Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court and The Time Machine He places the work in context and discusses the genre and its relation to other kinds of literature

The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism Mary K. Holland, 2020-06-11 Literature has never looked weirder full of images colors gadgets and footnotes and violating established norms of character plot and narrative structure Yet over the last 30 years critics have coined more than 20 new realisms in their attempts to describe it What makes this decidedly unorthodox literature realistic And if it is then what does realism mean anymore Examining literature by dozens of writers and over a century of theory and criticism about realism The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism sorts through the current critical confusion to illustrate how our ideas about what is real and how best to depict it have changed dramatically especially in recent years Along the way Mary K Holland guides the reader on a lively tour through the landscape of contemporary literary studies taking in metafiction ideology posthumanism postmodernism and poststructuralism with forays into quantum mechanics new materialism and Buddhism as well to give us entirely new ways of viewing how humans use language to make sense of and to make the world

Aquatic Mites from Genes to Communities Heather Proctor, 2013-03-09 Although the ancestral home of chelicerates was the sea the vast majority of modern species live on land Most students of spiders and mites also restrict themselves to terrestrial habitats However a surprising number of mites Arachnida Acari have returned to a watery existence Approximately 7000 species from the Mesostigmata Astigmata Oribatida and especially the Prostigmata now live in marine and freshwater habitats In Aquatic Mites a dozen chapters explore the distribution ecology behavior genetics and evolution of the most diverse of these astonishing arachnids The results of these studies raise as many interesting questions as they answer and should provoke more investigations of the biology of freshwater and marine Acari

Contemporary World Narrative Fiction and the Spaces of Neoliberalism Michael K. Walonen, 2016-04-26 This book is a transnational study of how contemporary fiction writers from the United States and Canada to Nigeria to India to Dubai have conceptualized the emergent social spaces of the diverse corners of the neoliberal world system Over the span of the past three to four decades free market economic policies have been sold to or pushed upon every society on the globe in some way shape or form The upshot of this has been a world system structured in terms of a vast shift of power and resources from government to private enterprise dwindling civic life replaced by rising consumerism an emerging oligarchic rentier class large segments of population faced with meager material conditions of existence and few prospects of socio economic mobility and a looming sense of a near future dominated by further economic collapses and mounting social strife This book analyses a wide cultural array of some of the most poignant narrative engagements with neoliberalism in its various localized manifestations throughout the world

The Four Books Yan Lianke, 2015-03-03 From the Franz Kafka Prize winning author of Lenin's Kiss a stupendous and unforgettable novel of Mao's China The Times London In the ninety ninth district of a re education compound freethinking artists and academics are detained to strengthen their loyalty to Communist ideologies Here the Musician and her lover the Scholar along with the Author and the Theologian are subjected to grinding physical labor They are also encouraged to inform on each other's dissident behavior for the prize of a chance at freedom Their preadolescent supervisor the Child delights in reward systems and excessive punishments But when agricultural and industrial production quotas are raised to an unattainable level the ninety ninth district dissolves into lawlessness As inclement weather and famine set in the people are abandoned by the regime and left alone to survive Set inside a labor camp during Mao's Great Leap Forward Booklist calls The Four Books a rich and complex novel from China's most heralded and censored modern writer The South China Morning Post The Oxford Handbook of Mormonism Terryl Givens, Philip L.
