Red Suitcase:

Red Suitcase Naomi Shihab Nye, 2013-12-20 Poet teacher essayist anthologist songwriter and singer Naomi Shihab Nye is one of the country's most acclaimed writers. Her voice is generous, her vision true, her subjects ordinary people and ordinary situations which when rendered through her language become remarkable. In this her fourth full collection of poetry we see with new eyes a grandmother's scarf, an alarm clock, a man carrying his son on his shoulders, Valentine for Ernest Mann. You can't order a poem like you order a taco. Walk up to the counter and say I'll take two and expect it to be handed back to you on a shiny plate. Still I like you, spirit. Anyone who says Here's my address, write me a poem, deserves something in reply. So I'll tell a secret instead. Poems hide in the bottoms of our shoes, they are sleeping. They are the shadows drifting across our ceilings the moment before we wake up. What we have to do is live in a way that lets us find them. Once I knew a man who gave his wife two skunks for a Valentine. He couldn't understand why she was crying. I thought they had such beautiful eyes. And he was serious. He was a serious man who lived in a serious way. Nothing was ugly just because the world said so. He really liked those skunks. So he re-invented them as Valentines and they became beautiful. At least to him. And the poems that had been hiding in the eyes of skunks for centuries crawled out and curled up at his feet. Maybe if we re-invent whatever our lives give us, we find poems. Check your garage, the odd sock in your drawer, the person you almost like but not quite. And let me know. The Red Suitcases Lyndsey Norton, 2012. Fakesh is in town. He seems to be targeting the Airports or is he playing a dangerous game of hide and seek. Will Becky Castle discover his true purpose? Or will she be distracted by personal events that she has no control over? Major Geoffrey Jackson has some secrets to divulge but is being reticent with his friends and Bob is home from Iraq and as usual Becky can't get enough of him but as their relationship is maturing she finds out more about Bob's past than she bargained for. Again Inspector Castle puts her life on the line to try and catch Fakesh and save London from the ultimate threat. An Israeli Princess With Red Suitcases In Amsterdam Rafael Webb

Berman, 2024-02-12. Lihi drew the red curtain wide open, countless eyes turning to stare at her, some at her face, most at her bare body. She ignored the zoo visitors, took a seat on the black barstool, closed her eyes and spun around like a little girl again and again and again, spinning on the merry-go-round that was her life. It all started in Tel Aviv. Lihi, a young Israeli girl of twenty-one, once a soldier in a combat unit, now an art student in Amsterdam. With the money running out, hunger eating at her, and the future shrouded in uncertainty, Lihi turns to the female butcher shops of the red light district. Lihi is prettier than everyone, younger than everyone, skinnier than everyone, but also tougher than everyone, an Israeli princess from a good family who was now the princess of the red district. The readers are led into the inner sanctums of the red light district and are exposed to what takes place behind the red curtains. This book is young, wild, and kicking, dealing with an explosive, outrageous subject. Some will get angry, others will despise it, and some might even feel sick, but this book is human, real, and faithful, and is intertwined with the longing for freedom throughout. Doghouse Roses Steve Earle, 2002.
