Sex, Symbolists and the Greek Body Richard Warren, 2019-11-14 This book explores Symbolist artists' fascination with ancient Greek art and myth and how the erotic played a major role in this For a brief period at the end of the 19th century the Symbolist movement inspired artists to turn inwards to the unconscious mind endeavouring to unveil the secrets of human nature through their symbolic art But above all their greatest interest and fear was man and woman's sexuality Building upon the traditions of Academic neoclassicism but fired with a new zeal they turned back to Greek art and myth for inspiration That classical legacy was once again a vehicle for artists to express their dreams ideas and revelries And so too their anxieties For at times the frightening spectre of the sexual unconscious drove them to a new and innovative engagement with antiquity including in ways never before tried in the history of the classical tradition The unnerving sirens of Gustave Moreau unearthly heroines of Odilon Redon or leering fauns of Felicien Rops all played their role among others in this novel and unprecedented chapter in that tradition This book shows how in their painting drawing and sculpture the Symbolists re-invented Greek statuary and transposed it to new and unwonted contexts as the imaginary inner worlds of artists were mapped onto the landscapes of Greek myth It shows how they made of the Greek body whether female male androgyne or sexual other at once an object of beauty desire fear and at times of horror

The Metaphysics of Night Matthew Del Nevo, 2014-04-18 The Metaphysics of Night acknowledges a post secular philosophy one that puts philosophy into serious dialogue with religion rather than considering religion a thing of the past Matthew Del Nevo deals with the cultural unconscious inseparable from religious consciousness and draws on psychoanalysis and literature as well as philosophy The metaphysics of the night is Del Nevo's metaphor for the deep and mysterious expanse of the soul Philosophically the book is critical of Enlightenment presumptions about knowledge and truth and overly spiritualizing tendencies in religion Its critical edge cuts against materialist and historicist tendencies in the humanities and abstract intellectualism in philosophy Arguing for strong aesthetic values Del Nevo defends and explains soul and soulful experience the creation of depth the ineffable real presence beauty and saving words noting that the sources of all these are in us but often are blocked Each of the five parts of this book testify to what the author notes may be forgotten but which ought not to be forgotten It is necessary for life as socially religiously and educationally instituted within culture and as constitutive for culture Del Nevo deals with sensibility as a form of wisdom and instinct that is not cognitive or knowledge information based He argues for a shift of emphasis in culture from intellect to intuition This well written work filled with Catholic philosophic and artistic thought will be of interest to all philosophers theologians and students of culture
