Constructing Objectivity: Emotions in Legal Decision-making Stina Bergman Blix, Sharyn Lee-Anne Roach Anleu, Mojca M.
Plesnicar, Louise Victoria Johansen, 2025-08-28 The field of Law and Emotion originated in discussions that disputed the bifurcation of emotion and law In the past decade these discussions have inspired socio legal research on the dynamic and social dimensions of court work The field has grown exponentially in diverse disciplines such as sociology law philosophy anthropology and criminology At the core of legal decision making lies the fundamental principles of objectivity impartiality and independence The Research Topic Constructing Objectivity Emotions in Legal Decision making addresses the dialectical processes of translating these principles into everyday judicial practice across a wide range of legal systems Building on empirical research including observations interviews shadowing vignettes and workshops with legal professionals this collection engages with objectivity in the making It addresses such questions as What role does court architecture and material objects play in the emotional dynamic of the legal procedure How do judges manage victims emotional statements or evaluate their credibility How do judges make independent decisions in a collective setting What role does extra legal lay specialist expertise play in co constructing legal knowledge of relevance to decision making How do judges embrace the idea of objectivity How is all this influenced by the growing digitalization of courts and hearings In so doing it investigates the complexity of objectivity as an ideal a judicial value requiring performance promoting courtroom atmosphere and as sometimes feigned
