openly about failure the authors argue has stunted the public conversation about crime in this country and stifled new ideas. It has also contributed to our inability to address such problems as chronic offending in low income neighborhoods and overreliance on incarceration, the misuse of pretrial detention and the high rates of recidivism among parolees. Berman and Fox offer students and policymakers an escape from this fate by writing about failure in the criminal justice system. Their goal is to encourage a more forthright dialogue about criminal justice, one that acknowledges that many new initiatives fail and that no one knows for certain how to reduce crime. For the authors, this is not a source of pessimism but a call to action. This revised edition is updated with a new foreword by Cyrus R Vance Jr and afterword by Greg Berman. Cities for Life Jason Corburn, 2021-11-16. In cities around the world, planning and health experts are beginning to understand the role of social and environmental conditions that lead to trauma. By respecting the lived experience of those who were most impacted by harms, some cities have developed innovative solutions for urban trauma. In Cities for Life, public health expert Jason Corburn shares lessons from three of these cities: Richmond, California; Medellín, Colombia; and Nairobi, Kenya. Corburn draws from his work with citizens, activists, and decision makers in these cities over a ten-year period as individuals and communities worked to heal from trauma, including from gun violence, housing and food insecurity, poverty, and other harms. Cities for Life is about a new way forward with urban communities that rebuilds our social institutions, practices, and policies to be more focused on healing and health. It Started with the Hats Paul F. Joyce, 2024. Through interviews, analysis, and life course theory, retired Boston police officer and criminologist Paul F.
