

BY ROYAL APPOINTMENT...

WHEN members of the Royal Family slip between the sheets, they can lie back and think of Pendle.

For Nelson textiles firm Peter Reed Group Ltd has been awarded a Royal Warrant as suppliers of bed linen to the palaces.

It means the firm can use the royal coat-of-arms on its products and letter-heads. It is already adorning the side of the factory.

The Queen's seal of approval has delighted the group's founder and chairman, Mr Peter Reed, and his son, Mark, who is managing director. They say the award is a credit to their 60-strong workforce at Nelson.

Mr Reed, whose grandfathers were both leading textile manufacturers, started the business 34 years ago in Barnoldswick. It later moved to Springfield Mill, Blacko, until the company had premises purpose-built on the Lomeshaye Industrial Estate in 1986.

The company, which exports all over the world, is famous for its high-quality Egyptian cotton sheets. Among its better-know customers are Harrods, The Conran Shop, and, in the USA, Bloomingdales. You can also sleep between Reed products at The Ritz, at Raffles Hotel in Singapore, aboard the Orient Express, and on South Africa's luxurious Blue Train.

Apart from sheets and pillow cases, the firm now produces a much larger range of bedlinen, all woven and finished in the company's own mill.

The group markets Imperial Childrenswear and Imperial Hand Embroideries, which comprise fine quality table linens, children's wear, and lingerie. It has sales offices in Madeira and New York, as well as Nelson.

An accolade for Pendle textile manufacturers

MR Peter Reed (left), founder of the Peter Reed Group Ltd, and his son, Mr Mark Reed.

Mr Mark Reed said: "We are very proud to receive this, the highest accolade. Demand for top quality linen is very strong, particularly from the USA, Japan, Germany, and South Africa.

"Nearly half our sales are to the export market, and our niche market seems to be holding up well against the recession.

"The Royal Warrant is the best acknowledgement possible of our family's contribution to the UK linen industry."

His father added: "There is no doubt the workforce here has played a big part in this, and as soon as it was confirmed I put a letter in the pay packets to say that it was a tribute to the quality of work.

"It seems that royalty is very keen on family firms getting this honour. In the past, we have supplied the Royal Household through third parties like Harrods, so we applied. We were not successful the first time, but we were asked if we were planning to apply again, and told we ought to. I would think that, in the USA, it could be very important from a marketing point of view."
