Reflections Of Harmony:

Samothracian Reflections Karl Lehmann, Phyllis Williams Lehmann, 2017-03-14 These three essays were inspired by the Samothracian discoveries Cyriacus of Ancona's visit to the island and his assessment of what he saw are the subject of the opening essay This is followed by the first detailed and comprehensive analysis of Mantegna's Parnassus a painting which Mrs Lehmann suggests reflects in its theme and imagery the use of a limited number of ancient sculptures and texts The final essay is a discussion of the postclassical transformation of the iconographic type of the ancient ship fountain Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Reflections on My Call to Preach Fred B. Craddock, 2009 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God s will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That s why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God s decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach
