Reflections From The Word:

Reflections on the Word Ken Gire, 1998 If you really want to hear what God is saying to you first you have to slow down That is what Reflections on the Word by acclaimed writer Ken Gire is designed to help you do To create pauses for reflection like park benches that allow you to stop and sit and reflect on your spiritual journey To check the map And your bearings And to make any adjustments in your course Each reflection begins with a Scripture reading It s followed by a meditation that offers insight into the passage written either by Ken Gire or other spiritual guides from around the world and across the centuries including Dietrich Bonhoeffer Catherine Marshall Oswald Chambers and Edith Schaeffer The closing prayer is intended only to start you praying in hopes that the Holy Spirit will bring other things to mind other vistas He would have you see other paths He would have you take other precipices He would have you avoid This is a companion book to two others in this new series by Ken Gire that emphasize the centuries old tradition of reflective living The Reflective Life a spiritual primer and Reflections on Your Life a journal

Reflections Connie Pinkham, 2017-10-02 It is a devils lie that words dont hurt One word can carry such tremendous weight and such deep meaning Look with me at some ordinary words and some not so ordinary words Bare your heart honestly before self and before God See if you identify with any of my struggles Share with me what has been a fruit of reflecting on His Word and not just mine I know that I am not alone on this journey of faith You are on your own journey Let us reflect on His good Word It is safe to trust Him enough to be honest with ourselves before Him He is so good
