Teachers at Their Best Rich Waters, 2018-04-03 The purpose of this book is to change the conversation about teacher induction preparation and development and how we create effective teachers Our national discussion about how to create effective teachers needs to move away from how higher education can do a better job preparing our teachers and move toward how our local schools can do a better job inducting preparing and developing our teachers over a full career There are two interconnected and irrefutable reasons for this First school culture supersedes all rational strategies for teacher development and second teachers learn to teach in the schools where they work not in higher education or any of the alternative routes which the ineffectiveness of higher education teacher preparation have caused to emerge With the affirmation of these postulates this book clarifies that teachers are at their best when they are working together in collaborative cultures where teacher thinking and decision making lead schools in continuous improvement and change Elaborating on the importance of these best conditions for optimal teacher development this book will insist that it is the entirety of a school culture that produces effective teachers and schools with authentic learning communities produce the cultures that produce effective teachers IJER Vol 11-N3 International Journal of Educational Reform,2002-07-02 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call on IJER to learn from an international group of reform implementers by discovering what they can do that has actually worked IJER can also help readers to understand the pitfalls of current reforms in order to avoid making similar mistakes Finally it is the mission of IJER to help readers to learn about key issues in school reform from movers and shakers who help to study and shape the power base directing educational reform in the U S and the world Philosophy of Education Philosophy of Education Society (U.S.). Meeting,1990 IJER Vol 2-N4 International Journal of Educational Reform,1993-10-01 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research IJER should thus be of interest to professional educators with decision making roles and policymakers at all levels turn since it provides a broad based conversation between and among policymakers practitioners and academicians about reform goals objectives and methods for success throughout the world Readers can call

Crisis in Teaching Lois Weis, Philip G. Altbach, Gail P. Kelly, Hugh G.
