Takeyh,Nikolas K. Gvosdev,2004-06-30 The tragic events of September 11 2001 in the United States renewed fears of an Islamist wave destabilizing the countries of the Muslim world Yet the alarm raised over a previous wave of Islamism in the early 1990s which threatened to overwhelm Egypt and Algeria and spill into the Balkans and Central Asia proved to be unfounded Takeyh and Gvosdev assert that while Islamism has been successful as an oppositional ideology of wrath it has failed to provide Islamic societies with any feasible alternative to undertaking fundamental political and economic reforms By detailing the defeat of Islamist movements in the Middle East the Balkans and Central Asia over the last decade this book encourages us not to overestimate the Islamist threat in the current climate and the years to come Radical Islamists have been successful in mobilizing opposition to corrupt regimes yet they have failed to translate their utopian vision into reality Furthermore their emphasis on violence alienates and frightens the middle class and other potential allies Iran s revolution failed to create a model Islamic republic and its government is increasingly losing legitimacy to demands for genuine democracy Islamist governments in Afghanistan and Sudan relied upon violence to remain in power and ultimately collapsed Islamist movements proved unable to dislodge the existing regimes in Egypt and Algeria In the Balkans and Central Asia Islamism has had little attraction for Western oriented populations Indeed throughout the entire Islamic world former radicals are seeking a new accommodation between Islamic values and liberal democracy Takeyh and Gvosdev succinctly and accessibly explore the rise of radical Islam as well as its ultimate demise in various nations CURRICULUM REFORM IN

PAKISTAN Amna Afreen,2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country s problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don t they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan. Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools. More importantly why do the ulama, which literally means those who possess knowledge, particularly of Islam, maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions? Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities? Book Review: Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions, intolerance and conflicts. Dr. Amna Afreen documents the political, socio-economic and religious causes, limited government funding, widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools, madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms. Modernity in Twentieth-Century West African Islamic Reforms Ousman Kobo, 2012-08-27. In this book Ousman Kobo analyzes the origins of Wahhabi-inclined reform movements in two West African countries. Commonly associated with recent Middle Eastern influences, reform movements in Ghana and Burkina Faso actually began during the twilight of European colonial rule in the 1950s and developed from local doctrinal contests over Islamic orthodoxy. These early movements in turn gradually evolved in ways sympathetic to Wahhabi ideas. Kobo also illustrates the modernism of this style of Islamic reform. The decisive factor for most of the movements was the alliance of secularly educated Muslim elites with Islamic scholars to promote a self-consciously modern religiosity rooted in the Prophet Muhammad's traditions. This book therefore provides a fresh understanding of the indigenous origins of Wahhabism. Wahhabi Islam Natana J. Delong-Bas, 2008-08-22. Before 9/11 few Westerners had heard of Wahhabism. Today it is a household word. Frequently mentioned in association with Osama bin Laden, Wahhabism is portrayed by the media and public officials as an intolerant, puritanical, militant interpretation of Islam that calls for the wholesale destruction of the West in a jihad of global proportions. In the first study ever undertaken of the writings of Wahhabism's founder, Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Wahhab (1702-1791), Natana DeLong-Bas shatters these stereotypes and misconceptions. Her reading of Ibn Abd al-Wahhab's works produces a revisionist thesis: Ibn Abd al-Wahhab was not the godfather of contemporary terrorist movements. Rather, he was a voice of reform reflecting mainstream 18th-century Islamic thought. His vision of Islamic society was based upon a monotheism in which Muslims, Christians and Jews were to enjoy peaceful co-existence and cooperative commercial and treaty relations. Eschewing medieval interpretations of the Quran and hadith sayings and deeds of the prophet Muhammad, Ibn Abd al-Wahhab called for direct, historically contextualized interpretation of scripture by both women and men. His understanding of theology and Islamic law was rooted in Quranic values rather than literal interpretations. A strong proponent of women's rights, he called for a balance of rights between women and men both within marriage and in access to education and public space. In the most comprehensive study of Ibn Abd al Wahhab's interpretation of jihad ever written DeLong Bas details a vision in which jihad is strictly limited to the self defense of the Muslim community against military aggression Contemporary extremists like Osama bin Laden do not have their origins in Wahhabism she shows The hallmark jihadi focus on a cult of martyrdom the strict division of the world into two necessarily opposing spheres the wholesale destruction of both civilian life and property and the call for global jihad are entirely absent from Ibn Abd al Wahhab's writings Instead the militant stance of contemporary jihadism lies in adherence to the writings of the medieval scholar Ibn Taymiyya and the 20th century Egyptian radical Sayyid Qutb This pathbreaking book fills an enormous gap in the literature about Wahhabism by returning to the original writings of its founder Bound to be controversial it will be impossible to ignore Canadian Books in Print, 2001 The Transition from Modern Enslavement to the Universality of Islam Prof. Ibrahim Abdullah SALKINI, This book combines two works into a single volume 1 The Means of Enslavement in the Modern Era 2 Islam from East to West The Globalization of Islam I have added the Arabic version at the end of the book for two reasons 1 So that readers may verify the original content if they doubt the accuracy of the translation 2 So that students learning Arabic or English may benefit by reading in both languages This book takes the reader on a journey from the Opening Chapter of the Noble Qur'an to the biography of the Seal of the Prophets and Messengers from cosmic contemplation and foresight into the future to belief in God's promise and certainty in its fulfillment from intellectual theorization to practical application establishing the historical progression that inevitably moves us from the state of Contemporary Global Enslavement to the state of Islam from East to West and ultimately to the new world order that is The Globalization of Islam It remains for us to determine our role in this equation Will we be among those who carry this banner forward earning for ourselves the honor of this divine gift both in this world and the hereafter Or will we fall behind and fall short only to be replaced by another people who will carry this lofty banner which has never fallen and never will It shall continue rising ever higher and none will suffer during this time of replacement except us due to our own negligence Radical Reform Tariq Ramadan, 2009-02-05 In this new book Tariq Ramadan argues that it is crucial to find theoretical and practical solutions that will enable Western Muslims to remain faithful to Islamic ethics while fully living within their societies and their time He notes that Muslim scholars often refer to the notion of ijtihad critical and renewed reading of the foundational texts as the only way for Muslims to take up these modern challenges But Ramadan argues in practice such readings have effectively reached the limits of their ability to serve the faithful in the West as well as the East In this book he sets forward a radical new concept of ijtihad which puts context including the knowledge derived from the hard and human sciences cultures and their geographic and historical contingencies on an equal footing with the scriptures as a source of Islamic law Islamic Reform and Conservatism Indira Falk Gesink, 2009-11-30 The famed reform debates at al Azhar Madrasa in nineteenth century Cairo one of the most influential centres of religious study in Sunni Islam were enormously influential for twentieth century Islamic thought Here Indira Gesink offers a revisionist history of these debates over curricular and administrative reforms and challenges our understanding of the struggle between Islamic reform and conservatism. It has been assumed that famous Islamic modernists such as Muhammad Abduh instigated the reform movement and the ideas of modern religious life that emanated from al Azhar and permeated Islamic society a development that religious conservatives opposed. Gesink draws on obscure but important archival sources, legal manuals and ephemeral journals to tell the other side of the story and to illustrate the important contributions of conservative scholars to the evolution of twentieth century Sunni Islam. Conservative opponents of reform engaged many of the same issues as reformers and actively pursued alternative visions of reform. In fact, texts of enacted reforms show greater attention to concerns of conservatives than to the original programmes of Muhammad Abduh and conservatives led ulama committees that generated and implemented reforms. Had religious conservatives not contributed to the reforms of the early twentieth century, these reforms would have lacked the crucial cultural assonance that permitted them to become rooted in public life in an environment of rising nationalist anti British sentiment which saw Abduh as a willing agent of colonialists. The debates ultimately catalyzed public acceptance of secularism, Islamic modernism and radical Islamism. They also led to the practice of lay legal interpretation, the proliferation of competing interpretations within Sunni Islam and the rise of militant sects. By drawing on obscure archival sources and restoring conservative voices to the debate, Islamic Reform and Conservatism presents a more nuanced picture of the al Azhar debates and the forces that shaped Islamic religious life in the twentieth century than has become the norm. Its original scholarship and fresh analysis make this book indispensable for all those interested in the modern Middle East religious history, Islamic studies, radical Islam and militancy, secularism, modernism and religious reform.

In the Beginning: Hijacking of the Religion of God Sami M. El-Soudani, 2009-06-09 Preface It was shortly after I had graduated from the University of Cambridge in 1980 with a PhD Degree specializing in fracture mechanics and failure analysis of materials and structures that I discovered the dire need for this book. This undertaking began to take shape in the early 1980s with the Middle East aflame, devastated by what some viewed as a holy war and with millennialists prophesying the end of days by the year 2000 C E. After publishing and co-authoring 87 scientific and industrial reports and technical papers, many of which were in national and international magazines on the subject of failure analysis of metals and fracture mechanics of aircraft structures, I came to realize that consequences of failures of the human spirit are far more devastating than failures of metals and aircraft structures. But now at the outset of the 21st century, the world is still experiencing turmoil and devastation by wars spreading like wildfire with Jews, Christians and Moslems at each other's throats in seemingly never-ending battles and ugly strife. Some call it war on terror, others speak of wars of clashing cultures, crusades, jihad, etc etc etc. One can't help but wonder how this saga of 99% misery and 1% heroism will ever come to an end. Only the gullible would attempt to explain the ongoing world conflict among People of the Book, Jews, Christians and Moslems based on the course of events during the past few years or even the past few decades. This is where this book comes in with a rigorous rationalized and hopefully convincing critical assessment of a never before explored most innate aspect of the human nature and that is its obsession with hijacking of the religion of God For better understanding of the root cause of the ongoing conflict among People of the Book who are supposed to be worshipping the same God we need to take a step back take a deep breath and reflect rationally while ignoring all rhetoric and emotional bias in researching the past three thousand years of religious history And this is exactly what I did in writing this three volume book More specifically this book is addressing the religion of God to whom every human being from among the so called People of the Book today turns in prayer Whether soldiers or civilians when they are caught in the midst of the ongoing grisly and devastating wars some would pray to Yahweh others call upon Jesus Christ while Moslem brethren whisper the name of Allah upon taking their last breath Who is that God And why is He so shrouded with mystery Is He truly One and the Same God for all these people Or are we suffering from some self delusions and possibly hallucinations that may be the senseless products of our ancient religious fabrications and mythmaking Going back in time three thousand years brings us to one very special night when God was said to have come down in person onto Mount Sinai to have a close encounter with human beings through direct speech This three volume book examines the course of religious events from that magic and apocalyptic moment onwards till this day It took me twenty years of research to show that men who practiced hijacking long before they had wings have been quite active over the past three thousand years engaging in the lucrative business of hijacking the religion of God All three religious persuasions Judaism Christianity and Islam suffered the dire consequences of miserably failing to heed the words of our Merciful and Patient God No irony intended here in calling it a business and indeed a lucrative one because it brings the hijackers power enormous wealth and often glory all of which in the sight of God translate respectively into arrogance greed and most certainly infamy In developing the extensive critical review of religion presented herein detailing the respective histories of the selected three

Ottoman Reform and Muslim Regeneration Weismann Zachs,2005-03-24 The late Ottoman period was one of enormous change This book focuses on the evolution of Ottoman reform as it was perceived and negotiated from the perspectives of the capital Istanbul and of the Arab provinces of Syria including Palestine It also examines the close interrelationship between the symbolic and actual measures introduced by the state particularly since the Tanzimat era 1839 76 and the role of Islam as its foundational ethos and as the religion of the majority of the population The twelve case studies included in this volume reveal the extent of the changes that the Ottoman Empire underwent throughout the period ranging from the Ottoman dynasty and court at the top to the marginalized Druzes and Bedouin populations on the periphery

Shaping the Current Islamic Reformation B.A. Roberson,2004-08-02 The essays that comprise this study eschew stereotypical representations of a politicized Islam in the Mediterranean Region The contributors consider the reality that lies behind current issues in the area and the role that an embedded Islam has played or may play in the region

The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary Middle Eastern and North African History Jens Hanssen,Amal N. Ghazal,2020-11-30 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary Middle Eastern and North African History critically examines the defining processes and structures of historical developments in North Africa and the Middle East over the past two centuries The Handbook pays particular attention to countries that have leapt out of the political shadows of dominant and better studied neighbours in the course of the unfolding uprisings in the Middle East and North Africa These dramatic and interconnected developments have exposed the dearth of informative analysis available in surveys and textbooks particularly on Tunisia Libya Yemen Bahrain and Syria

Muhammad Reconsidered Anna Bonta Moreland,2020-03-30 Muhammad Reconsidered rectifies the failures of scholarly attempts to understand Islam in the West and to take Islamic theology seriously Engaging Islam from deep within the Christian tradition by addressing the question of the prophethood of Muhammad Anna Bonta Moreland calls for a retrieval of Thomistic thought on prophecy Without either appropriating the prophet as an unwitting Christian or reducing both Christianity and Islam to a common denominator Moreland studies Muhammad within a Christian theology of revelation This lens leads to a more sophisticated understanding of Islam one that honors the integrity of the Catholic tradition and argues for the possibility in principle of Muhammad as a religious prophet Moreland sets the stage for this inquiry through an intertextual reading of the key Vatican II documents on Islam and on Christian revelation She then uses Aquinas s treatment of prophecy to address the case of whether Muhammad is a prophet in Christian terms Muhammad Reconsidered examines the work of several Christian theologians including W Montgomery Watt Hans K ng Kenneth Cragg David Kerr and Jacques Jomier O P and then draws upon the practice of analogical reasoning in the theology of religious pluralism to show that a term in one religion in this case prophecy can have purchase in another religious tradition Muhammad Reconsidered not only is a constructive contribution to Catholic theology but also has enormous potential to help scholars reframe and comprehend Christian Muslim relations

Africa in Contemporary Perspective Manuh, Takiyiwaa, Sutherland-Addy, Esi, 2014-05-08 An important feature of Ghanaian tertiary education is the foundational African Studies Programme which was initiated in the early 1960s Unfortunately hardly any readers exist which bring together a body of knowledge on the themes issues and debates which inform and animate research and teaching in African Studies particularly on the African continent This becomes even more important when we consider the need for knowledge on Africa that is not Eurocentric or sensationalised but driven from internal understandings of life and prospects in Africa Dominant representations and perceptions of Africa usually depict a continent in crisis Rather than buying into external representations of Africa with its lacks and aspirations for Western modernities we insist that African scholars in particular should be in the forefront of promoting understanding of the pluri lingual overlapping and dense reality of life and developments on the continent to produce relevant and usable knowledge Continuing and renewed interest in Africa s resources including the land mass economy minerals visual arts and performance cultures as well as bio medical knowledge and products by old and new geopolitical players obliges African scholars to transcend disciplinary boundaries and to work with each other to advance knowledge and uses of those resources in the interests of Africa s people
