Cross-Cultural Reckonings Blanche H. Gelfant, 1995-01-27 Blanche H Gelfant's book Cross Cultural Reckonings both demonstrates and questions the applicability of postmodern cultural and literary theories to realistic texts to fiction and autobiographies valued for their truth Drawing together an unusual combination of Russian American and Canadian writers the various essays of this book provide new and original perspectives upon the puzzling issues of national identity of historical change and continuity of gender and the integrity of literary genres the boundaries between text and context and the underlying if overlooked conflicts between the postmodern critic's skepticism and a writer's belief in the transcendence of art and truth To avoid the contingencies inherent in binary comparisons the essays in this book seek a triadic form analogous to the triptych or polyptych of the visual arts Multi faceted non linear and open ended such a form might allow the academic essay to recover a waywardness that traces back to Montaigne cited in prefatory notes and to the etymological meaning of the essay as an exagium or weighing as an act of reckoning A study at once elegant erudite and personal Cross Cultural Reckonings reckons with writers of different backgrounds and reputation in whom Gelfant discovers surprising affinities among them the Russian writers Lydia Chukovskaya Natalya Baranskaya and Alexander Solzhenitsyn Ethel Wilson a highly reputed Canadian writer the famous cross cultural figure Emma Goldman and established as well as new or rediscovered American writers such as Willa Cather Saul Bellow Arlene Heyman and Meridel Le Sueur These writers are discussed singly and in comparative essays each of which is discrete and self contained while all interconnect and reflect upon each other as exemplary demonstrations of cross cultural literary criticism and the deferred final judgment that results from a weighing and reweighing of books

Tapper,2013-10-18 Examining how Crane s corporeal aesthetic informs poems written across the span of his career The Machine ThatSings focuses on four texts in which Crane s preoccupation with the body reaches its apogee Tapper treats Voyages The Wine Merchant and Possessions as a triptych of erotic poems in which Crane plays out alternative resolutions to the dialectic between purity and defilement a conceptual dynamic which Tapper argues is central to both Crane s poetics of difficulty and his representations of homosexual desire Tapper concentrates on the three sections of The Bridge most concerned with recuperating animality National Winter Garden The Dance and Cape Hatteras The Calvinist Roots of the Modern Era Alik Barnstone,Michael Tomasek

Manson,Carol J. Singley,1997 This collection of essays traces Calvinism s presence in twentieth century literature and demonstrates its impact as psychological construct cultural institution and socio political model Wallace Stevens and Martin Heidegger Ian Tan,2022-06-20 This book is a unique contribution to scholarship of the poetics of Wallace Stevens offering an analysis of the entire oeuvre of Stevens s poetry using the philosophical framework of Martin Heidegger Marking the first book length engagement with a philosophical reading of Stevens it uses Heidegger s theories as a framework through which Stevens s poetry can be read and shows how philosophy and literature can enter into a productive dialogue It also makes a case for a Heideggerian reading of poetry exploring his later philosophy with respect to his writing on art language and poetry Taking Stevens s repeated emphasis on the terms being consciousness reality and truth as its starting point the book provides a new reading of Stevens with a philosopher who aligns poetic insight with a reconceptualization of the metaphysical significance of these concepts It pursues the link between philosophy American poetry as reflected through Stevens and modernist poetics looking from Stevens s modernist techniques to broader European philosophical movements of the twentieth century Flannery O'Connor and Cold War Culture Jon Lance Bacon,1993 Flannery O Connor and Cold War Culture offers a radically new reading of O Connor who is known primarily as the creator of universal religious dramas By recovering the historical context in which O Connor wrote her fiction Jon Lance Bacon reveals an artist deeply concerned with the issues that engaged other producers of American culture from the 1940s to the 1960s a national identity political anxiety and intellectual freedom Bacon takes an interdisciplinary approach relating the stories and novels to political texts and sociological studies as well as films television programs paintings advertisements editorial cartoons and comic books At a time when national paranoia ran high O Connor joined in the public discussion regarding a way of life that seemed threatened from outside the American way of life The discussion tended toward celebration but O Connor raised doubts about the quality of life within the United States Specifically she attacked the consumerism that cold warriors cited as evidence of American cultural superiority The role of dissenter appealed greatly to O Connor and her identity as a Southern Catholic writer the very identity that has discouraged critics from considering her as an American writer furnished a position from which to criticize the Cold War consensus

Whitman's Queer Children Catherine A. Davies, 2012-04-26 Davies examines the work of four of the most important twentieth century poets who have explored the epic tradition Some of the poems display an explicit concern with ideas of American nationhood while others emulate the formal ambitions and encyclopaedic scope of the epic poem The study undertakes extensive close readings of Hart Crane's The Bridge 1930 Allen Ginsberg's Howl 1956 and The Fall of America Poems of These States 1965 71 1972 James Merrill's The Changing Light at Sandover 1982 and John Ashbery's Flow Chart 1991 Although not primarily an account of a Whitmanian lineage this book considers Whitman's renegotiation of the dialectic between the public and the private as a context for the project of the homosexual epic arguing for the existence of a genealogy of epic poems that rethink the relationship between these two spheres If as Bakhtin suggests the job of epic is to accomplish the task of cultural national and political centralization of the verbal ideological world the idea of the homosexual epic fundamentally problematizes the traditional aims of the genre

Salem Story Bernard Rosenthal, 1993 Salem Story engages the story of the Salem witch trials by contrasting an analysis of the surviving primary documentation with the way events of 1692 have been mythologised by our culture Resisting the temptation to explain the Salem witch trials in the context of an inclusive theoretical framework the book examines a variety of individual motives that converged to precipitate the witch hunt Of the many assumptions about the Salem witch trials the most persistent is that they were instigated by a circle of hysterical girls Through an analysis of what actually happened by perusal of the primary materials with the close reading approach of a literary critic a different picture emerges one where hysteria inappropriately describes the logical rational strategies of accusation and confession followed by the accusers males and females alike
