Levin, 1987-01-01 Levin argues that feminists deny that innate sex differences have anything to do with the basic structure of society Justice and

Punishment Matt Matravers, 2000-08-03 This book aims to answer the question why and by what right do some people punish others The author argues that the justification of punishment must be embedded in a substantive political and moral theory Matravers questions why it is that recent theories of distributive justice have had so little to say about the punishment and retributive justice His answer is that contemporary theories of justice cannot explain the relationship of justice and morality more broadly conceived As this is also the relationship that a theory of punishment needs to explain it is in examining the problem of punishment that the limitations of contemporary theories of justice are most starkly exposed Moreover the limitations are such as to undermine these accounts of justice The claim is that it is through the discussion of punishment that the inadequacies of contemporary theories of justice is demonstrated and it is therefore through the discussion of punishment that those inadequacies can be rectified Matravers argues for a genuinely constructivist account of morality constructivist in that it rejects any idea of objective mind independent moral values and seeks instead to construct morality from non moral human concerns and human wills and genuinely constructivist in that in contrast to the faux constructivism of Rawls and cognate approaches it does not take as a premise the equal moral worth of persons He argues that a genuine constructivism will show the need for and justification of punishment as intrinsic to morality itself Substance Abuse, Communicating with Others, Who Is Jesus? David Cook Publishers, 2000-06 Where can your 4th 5th and 6th graders go for answers Your 4th 5th and 6th graders are looking for a place of their own A place that gets beyond simple solutions pat answers and slogans A place that is filled with people who listen to them challenge them and support them as they follow God Your students are looking for their domain domain 456 will help your 4th 5th and 6th graders navigate through a sometimes confusing world It gives them a place to talk about the complex issues they face every day Issues like Substance Abuse Communicating with Others and Who is Jesus And most importantly your students will find out what God and His Word say about these tough issues In this book you ll find three units for a total of 13 lessons over 20 reproducible activity sheets no student books to buy three reproducible parent newsletters to involve families in the topics being discussed To Protect and Serve with Laughter Lt.
