The Trodden Life Adarsh Nayan, The story revolves around a small town boy a resident of the city of waterfalls Ranchi Ansh exceptionally brilliant in academics and a child with a crystal clear future and a life with no complains But certainly at the age of 16 he decides to take drugs as his destiny and life as a joke finally he ends up slashing his wrist and allowing himself rest in peace with a piece of paper describing his apathy The biggest dilemma contrary to the situation was that fate had rejected his application for rejection of his life and life had some other plans for him His parents who believed that he was their love of life started misunderstanding him and ended up sending him far away from his home town to amritsar where he learnt the sole gratitude and meaning of life The story follows Ansh through the intense days after suicide as his experience lead him to question the whole idea of survival before he comes to realise that every second that one decides to survive is by the chances he gets and the choices he makes This is a moving and uplifting song to life one that reminds us that every moment in our life is special and precious and has a meaning to teach The trodden life is full of tragic and dramatic incidents that a youngster goes through inspired by true stories it has a special message to give and an unpredictable ending for all those who are searching the meaning of love in their life The dilemma is life gives a bouquet of opportunities at each and every death step intelligence is how many of them can find it      The Banner of Gold ,1910      A

Life Worth Living Esther Portalatin-Leighton, 2010-12-01 This novel is about a woman Lillian Cunnings who lives on a farm and has encountered much tragedy in her life From a young age she developed a passion for writing once her mother passed away She tried to escape a reality that was always full of pain and tragedy Although no one had ever read her stories her youngest daughter Skye took a great interest in them and stopped at nothing to have them published After her husband's tragic death

A Short Good Life Philip Lister, 2021-09-03 It's unusual to access a child's mind during the magic years of childhood It's rarer when the child is facing her death Liza an ardent child with a deep love of cows and the color purple was diagnosed with leukemia at age four and died two years later in 1996 Liza was an unusually expressive child and her parents both child psychiatrists were uniquely oriented to appreciate the richness of a child's mind Through writing this book Liza's father strove to reveal the inner world of a child's mind and a parent's mind as few other books can At its center this is the story of a child's psyche growing and striving to understand all she could of her experience and of a small family coping with life's biggest challenges It is a story of love's power to help a family cope and endure despite loss and to grow through darkness back toward a full embrace of life Through the process the family emerges transformed awed by the capacities of this child
