Geniuses of Crack Jeff Gomez, 2016-01-12. From the author of Our Noise, an engaging and touching tale about the misadventures of a Virginia based rock band, Bottlecap, that's an intricate and richly detailed study in twentysomething generational manners and mores that's almost encyclopedic in scope. Bret Easton Ellis' Bottlecap, the Virginia based group introduced in Jeff Gomez's cult favorite Our Noise, traded in life as a small band on a struggling independent label for a lucrative contract with a big Los Angeles company. This should mean more money, more attention, more of all the stuff that comes with fame. But from the minute Mark, Steve, and Gary arrive in Los Angeles, they enter a world they don't quite understand. Mark, as leader of the band, tries to keep things under control, but his own life and his relationship with his new girlfriend, Corinne, a native Angeleno and inveterate mallrat, begin to spin out of control. Steve falls under the influence of a neighbor with bad habits, while Gary scours the city's thrift stores searching for Atari memorabilia and a love of his own. Confusion reaches its peak when the record company's plans take an unexpected and to the band unacceptable turn. They must either completely sell out and surrender the band or take a stand, relegating themselves to commercial obscurity. Or is it already too late? With humor and insight, Gomez limns the lives of three young men who are geniuses at everything except what matters. Fans of Our Noise will welcome this update of Bottlecap; newcomers will find a writer with a rare talent for capturing the mood and the voice of a generation.

Australian Wildlife Conservancy Hannah Sheppard Brennand, 2021-11-03. Australia is home to some of the most unique wildlife in the world, from the improbable Bilby with its enormous ears to the Purple crowned Fairywren with its loyal partnerships to the highly social Great Desert Skink. But this wildlife is in crisis. In just over two centuries, over 100 plant and animal species have become extinct, and every year Australia's threatened species list continues to grow. Australian Wildlife Conservancy's (AWC) mission is to halt these extinctions and turn back this decline to effectively conserve all Australian animal species and the habitats in which they live. The late Martin Copley, AM, founder of AWC, purchased the organisation's first sanctuary in 1991. Thirty years on, AWC is a global leader in conservation, working alone or in partnership across a vast 6.5 million hectares of the continent, restoring biodiversity from the Kimberley to Cape York and from the Coral Coast to the Eyre Peninsula and Sunshine Coast. This book provides a window into AWC's history and a look to the future. This insightful and hopeful collection of stories gives evidence of the passion and immense effort invested by all those involved with the organisation. Featuring writing from the AWC family past and present, including Tim Winton, Tim Flannery, the late Thomas Lovejoy, and Sarah Legge, this book traverses the challenges and triumphs that mark the first thirty years of AWC.
