 anthologized     Scaffolding Eléna Rivera, 2016-11-08 A remarkable sequence of sonnets that reflect contemporary daily life in New York City Scaffolding is a sequence of eighty-two sonnets written over the course of a year dated and arranged in roughly chronological order and vividly reflecting life in New York City In this her third book of poetry El na Rivera uses the English sonnet as a scaffold to explore daily events observations conversations thoughts words and memories and to reflect on the work of earlier poets and the relationship between life and literature Guided by formal and syllabic constraints the poems become in part an exploration of how form affects content and how other poets have approached the sonnet The poems which are very attentive to rhythm and sound are often in conversation with historical philosophical artistic and literary sources But at the same time they engage directly with the present moment Like the construction scaffolding that year after year goes up around buildings all over New York these poems build on one another and change the way we see what was there before     Balanced Literacy Essentials Michelann Parr, 2012 This practical book offers a comprehensive approach to teaching literacy that puts students at the centre of the learning process     Loss, Grief and Transformation process The book examines personal loss of parents and partners as well as loss generated by mass trauma through the lens of the Holocaust the immigrant experience the COVID 19 pandemic and the environment There are chapters that cover how the lost other continues to live within one's mind and within the analytic relationship how loss impacts one's internal self system and how loss associated with traumatic experience with the deceased continues to reverberate With a unique focus

The New World Anthony Carelli, 2021-09-14 From an uncommonly fluent and rewarding poet The Observer a collection of miniature epics that asks can grace be found amid disarray The New World Anthony Carelli's new collection of poems is an American travelogue that unfolds in a series of darkly comic episodes with allusions to Dante as a thread throughout In these epics in miniature we meet a pilgrim poet as he awaits the arrival of his child a would be Columbus on the shores of a land disenstoriied by explorers present and past It's a land and a people largely lost in mindscapes and mythscapes haunted by sketchy aspirational visions misbegotten misremembering and emptiness Nonetheless the poet steps out to the shore to sing for the child and reader to do what Columbus never did land gently And listen and listen and listen and stay Constantly unsettling the rhetoric of inherited forms the poet shaping these poems is always bound to the pilgrim who cannot pretend to dissolve our purgatories but can only invite us as a latter day Virgil would deeper into the uncanny encounters that encircle us From an Arizona nursing home and a grandmother s memory of a stolen golden Schwinn in the occupied Philippines to a tale of road tripping west through Pennsylvania as sunrise transpires in the wrong sky The New World opens strange spaces for us to re see lament and re sing the stories we tell Creativity and the Poetic Mind Jean Tobin,2004 Creativity and the Poetic Mind mingles the voices of well known writers such as Nikki Giovanni Donald Hall John Koethe Marge Piercy and Robert Pinsky with newer voices and includes engaging excerpts from interviews with thirty eight American poets Within a sustained argument about creative states of mind this book innovatively presents and explores the technique of going to the place as more reliable in writing poetry than waiting for inspiration It explains why poets frequently believe that talking about their own poetry may damage their creativity and why for centuries inspiration has seemed to come from somewhere beyond the poet In addition it discusses the practicality of poets thinking that being creative and writing poetry are two separate skills inspiration is unreliable but experienced poets create daily The Collected Poems of W.
