The Twentieth Century, 1926

The World of Child Labor Hugh D. Hindman, 2009 This definitive resource details both the current and historical state of child labor in each region of the world focusing on its causes consequences and cures Including contributions by an international team of leading child labor scholars researchers policy makers and activists as well as a wealth of current statistical data it is the most comprehensive reference available on the subject The Lake Counties from 1830 to the Mid-twentieth Century John Duncan Marshall, John K. Walton, 1981 Media in Motion Elisabeth Eide, 2016-04-29 Owing to increased migration dating from the 1990s Nordic countries have gone through substantial cultural and social changes resulting in increased debate surrounding the politics of multiculturalism One of the central realms of the discussion around multiculturalism in the Nordic region concerns the media which is considered to be a vital factor in the construction of society's values as well as an essential tool in the integration process of migrants providing as it does a symbolic arena for learning about and becoming part of society This collection draws together the latest research from Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden to look at different aspects of the relationship between media and migration in the Nordic region Exploring the role played by the media in nation building and the power of the media in the definition of who belongs in society Media in Motion examines the practices of inclusion and exclusion that characterise mainstream media representations The book also examines the manner in which recent technological changes suggest the emergence of a transnational and cosmopolitan media landscape a space which blurs the boundaries of the national and transnational as well as between the public and the private with significant implications for the ways migrants may take and become part of society As such it will be of interest to those working in the fields of media race and ethnicity colonialism and postcolonial studies and migration Twentieth-Century Europe Richard Vaughan, 2025-09-12 Twentieth Century Europe 1979 traces the development of European unity from the early vision inspired by the cataclysm of the First World War to the institutions and the framework of the European Community Throughout the aim is to show how the idea and purpose of unity survived amid the turmoil of European politics and pointed the way to the creation of institutions which would allow European states to confront their problems together Private Wealth and Public Life Judith Sealander, 1997-04-21 An analysis of the role played by private philanthropic foundations in shaping public policy during the early years of this century focusing on foundation sponsored attempts to influence policy in the areas of education social welfare and public health Winner of the Outstanding Book Award from the Ohio Academy of History In Private Wealth and Public Life historian Judith Sealander analyzes the role played by private philanthropic foundations in shaping public policy during the early years of this century Focusing on foundation sponsored attempts to influence policy in the areas of education social welfare and public health she addresses significant misunderstandings about the place of philanthropic foundations in American life Between 1903 and 1932 fewer than a dozen philanthropic organizations controlled most of the hundreds of millions of dollars given to various causes Among these Sealander finds seven foundations attempted to influence public social policy in significant ways four were Rockefeller philanthropies joined later by the Russell Sage Rosenwald and Commonwealth Fund foundations

Challenging the extreme views of foundations either as benevolent forces for social change or powerful threats to democracy Sealander offers a more subtle understanding of foundations as important players in a complex political environment The huge financial resources of some foundations bought access she argues but never complete control Occasionally a foundation's agenda became public policy often it did not Whatever the results the foundations and their efforts spurred the emergence of an American state with a significantly expanded social policy making role Drawing on a wealth of archival materials much of it unavailable or overlooked until now Sealander examines issues that remain central to American political life Her topics include vocational education policy parent education juvenile delinquency mothers pensions and public aid to impoverished children anti prostitution efforts sex research and publicly funded recreation Foundation philanthropy's legacy for domestic social policy she writes raises a point that should be emphasized repeatedly by students of the policy process Rarely is just one entity a policy's sole author almost always policies in place produced unintended consequences

Baltic Hospitality from the Middle Ages to the Twentieth Century Sari Nauman, Wojtek Jezierski, Christina Reimann, Leif Runefelt, 2022-08-15 Reflecting debate around hospitality and the Baltic Sea region this open access book taps into wider discussions about reception securitization and xenophobic attitudes towards migrants and strangers Focusing on coastal and urban areas the collection presents an overview of the responses of host communities to guests and strangers in the countries surrounding the Baltic Sea from the early eleventh century to the twentieth The chapters investigate why and how diverse categories of strangers including migrants war refugees prisoners of war merchants missionaries and vagrants were portrayed as threats to local populations or as objects of their charity shedding light on the current predicament facing many European countries Emphasizing the Baltic Sea region as a uniquely multi layered space of intercultural encounter and conflict this book demonstrates the significance of Northeastern Europe to migration history

The Twentieth Century Magazine Benjamin Orange Flower, 1911 The Twentieth Century Magazine, 1911 Focus: Music, Nationalism, and the Making of the New Europe Philip V. Bohlman, 2010-09-13 Two decades after the fall of communism in Eastern Europe and one decade into the twenty first century European music remains one of the most powerful forces for shaping nationalism Using intensive fieldwork throughout Europe from participation in alpine foot pilgrimages to studies of the grandest music spectacle anywhere in the world the Eurovision Song Contest Philip V Bohlman reveals the ways in which music and nationalism intersect in the shaping of the New Europe Focus Music Nationalism and the Making of the New Europe begins with the emergence of the European nation state in the Middle Ages and extends across long periods during which Europe's nations used music to compete for land and language and to expand the colonial reach of Europe to the entire world Bohlman contrasts the national and the nationalist in music examining the ways in which their impact on society can be positive and negative beneficial for European cultural policy and dangerous in times when many European borders are more fragile than ever The New Europe of the twenty first century is more varied more complex and more politically volatile than ever and its music resonates fully with these transformations
