Worldwide Pre-Raphaelitism Thomas J.

Tobin, 2005-01-01 Examines the influence of the Pre Raphaelite movement on art and literature around the world The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets, 1880-1897 D.M.R. Bentley, 2013-12-11 As one of the formative periods in Canadian history the late nineteenth century witnessed the birth of a nation a people and a literature In this study of Canada's first school of poets D M R Bentley combines archival work including extensive research in periodicals and newspapers with close readings of the work of Charles G D Roberts Archibald Lampman Bliss Carman William Wilfred Campbell Duncan Campbell Scott and Frederick George Scott Bentley chronicles the formation reception national and international successes and eventual disintegration after the 1895 War Among the Poets of the Confederation Group whose poetry forever changed the perception and direction of Canadian literature With the aid of biographical political and sociological analyses Bentley's literary history delineates the group's political aesthetic and thematic dispositions and characteristics and contextualizes them not only within Canadian history and politics but also within contemporary intellectual and literary currents including Romantic nationalism Canadianism and poetic formalism Bentley casts new light on the poets commonalities such as their debt to Young Ireland their commitment to careful workmanship and their participation in the American mind cure movement as well as on their most accomplished and anthologized poems from 1880 to 1897 In the process he presents a compelling case for the literary and historical importance of these six men and their poems in light of Canada's cultural and political past and defends their right to be known as Canada's first poetic fraternity at a time when Canada was striving to achieve literary and national distinction The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets 1880 1897 is an erudite and innovative work of literary history and critical interpretation that belongs on the bookshelf of every serious scholar of literary studies

History of the Book in Canada: 1840-1918 History of the Book in Canada Project, 2004-01-01 This second of three volumes in the History of the Book in Canada demonstrates the same research and editorial standards established with Volume One by book history specialists from across the nation National Soul Marylin J. McKay, 2002-05-13 Examining their social political and economic contexts McKay shows how the murals of this period glorified Canada as a modern nation state extolled the virtues of commerce and industry inculcated conventions of gender and race and shared the intensity of nationalistic sentiment that led to the work of the more renowned painters of Toronto's Group of Seven Bringing together for the first time a body of Canadian work civic commercial religious and private that has been largely ignored by art historians A National Soul challenges previous histories of Canadian painting This generously illustrated book reproduces seldom seen works from across the country many of which have been moved or destroyed and includes a comprehensive listing of all works from the period their original and present locations and their state of preservation Haunted Texts William Evan Fredeman, 2003-01-01 Begun by young rebels committed to revolutionizing the creative arts Pre Raphaelitism has moved from the margins of nineteenth century art and literature to the vanguard of interdisciplinary studies The term is now used to denote the Pre Raphaelite Aesthetic and Decadent movements in art culture and literature but it has remained as difficult to define as ever Haunted Texts attempts to meet the challenge of defining and illustrating the full spectrum of Pre Raphaelitism Working with a diverse range of Pre Raphaelite poetry painting decorative arts book illustration and political prose the ten contributors to Haunted Texts pursue the critical strategies of such leading figures as Christina Rossetti and Dante Rossetti William Morris and Oscar Wilde Walter Pater and Aubrey Beardsley The essays consider the bibliocritical issues of archival research concerning the personal letters and diaries of the Rossetti family the technological issues that challenge conventional methods of scholarship the gender issues concerning constructions of identity derived from the changing conceptions of love desire anxiety and brotherhood and the interdisciplinary cultural issues that transgress the borders of high art and popular culture Haunted Texts pays tribute to the scholarship of Professor William Fredeman who devoted much of his career since the 1950s to establishing a critical foundation that would enable future scholars to define their understanding of the complexity of Pre Raphaelitism

In Good Hands Ellen Easton McLeod, 1999-12-20 The Canadian Handicrafts Guild broadened the definition of art and the artist in Canada Linking decorative arts with home arts and handicrafts the Guild consistently showed them together at annual exhibitions at the art gallery in Montreal and formed a permanent collection documenting old and contemporary crafts The Guild women combined creativity and philanthropy voluntarism and an entrepreneurial spirit education and concern with quality in a movement that provided income and recognition to craftspeople and a craft legacy to Canada In Good Hands is alive with the interplay between art and social history and the issues this dialogue raised at the time and those we bring to it now constantly overlap It deals with noblesse oblige and the era's patronizing attitude to cultural difference but shows how the Guild consciously fostered an inclusive national feeling by exhibiting and selling crafts of all Canadians on an equal footing It also draws a much broader perspective of women's roles in shaping our culture than has been the norm in Canadian art history

The Practice of Her Profession Susan Butlin, 2009-03-01 In The Practice of Her Profession Susan Butlin draws on unpublished letters and family memoirs to recount Carlyle's personal and professional life She explores Carlyle's artistic influences her relationships with artist colleagues and encounters with the cultural worlds of Paris New York and early twentieth century Canada and provides a detailed examination of Carlyle's paintings Butlin's vivid description of the artistic life of women of this era from access to art training to the important role of women's art societies introduces readers to Carlyle's many accomplished contemporaries Helen McNicoll Mary Reid Laura Muntz Sarah Holden Sydney Tully Elizabeth McGillivray Knowles and others

Sketches from an Unquiet Country Dominic Hardy, Annie Gérin, Lora Senechal Carney, 2018-06-08 Canadian readers have enjoyed their own graphic satire since colonial times and Canadian artists have thrived as they took aim at the central issues and figures of their age Graphic satire a combination of humorous drawing and text that usually involves caricature is a way of taking an ethical stand about contemporary politics and society First appearing in short lived illustrated weeklies in Montreal Quebec City and Toronto in the 1840s usually as unsigned copies of engravings from European magazines the genre spread quickly as skilled local illustrators engravers painters and sculptors joined the teams of publishers and writers who sought to shape public opinion and public policy A detailed account of Canadian graphic satire Sketches from an Unquiet Country looks at a century bookended by the aftermath of the 1837-38 Rebellions and Canada's entry into the Second World War As fully fledged artist commentators Canadian cartoonists were sometimes gently ironic but they were just as often caustic and violent in the pursuit of a point of view This volume shows a country where conflicts crop up between linguistic and religious communities a country often resistant to social and political change for women and open to the cross currents of anti-Semitism xenophobia and fascism that flared across Europe and North America in the early twentieth century Drawing on new scholarship by researchers working in art history material culture and communication studies Sketches from an Unquiet Country follows the fortunes of some of the artists and satiric themes that were prevalent in the centres of Canadian publishing

Phenomenology, Modernism and Beyond Carole Bourne-Taylor, Ariane Mildenberg, 2010 From the first stirrings of modernism to contemporary poetics the modernist aesthetic project could be described as a form of phenomenological reduction that attempts to return to the invisible and unsayable foundations of human perception and expression prior to objective points of view and scientific notions It is this aspect of modernism that this book brings to the fore The essays presented here bring into focus the contemporary face of ongoing debates about phenomenology and modernism The contributors forcefully underline the intertwining of modernism and phenomenology and the extent to which the latter offers a clue to the former The book presents the viewpoints of a range of internationally distinguished critics and scholars with diverse but closely related essays covering a wide range of fields including literature architecture philosophy and musicology The collection addresses critical questions regarding the relationship between phenomenology and modernism with reference to thinkers such as Edmund Husserl Maurice Merleau-Ponty Martin Heidegger Michel Henry and Paul Ricoeur By examining the contemporary philosophical debates this cross disciplinary body of research reveals the pervasive and far reaching influence
