O'Sullivan, 2013-03-20 In 1939 more than 140 000 New Zealanders enlisted to fight overseas during World War II Of these 104 000 served in the Second New Zealand Expeditionary Force Initially thrown into the doomed campaign to halt the German blitzkrieg on Greece and Crete 1941 the division was rebuilt under the leadership of MajGen Sir Bernard Freyberg and became the elite corps within Montgomery's Eighth Army in the desert After playing a vital role in the victory at El Alamein 1942 the Kiwis were the vanguard of the pursuit to Tunisia In 1943-45 the division was heavily engaged in the Italian mountains especially at Cassino 1944 it ended the war in Trieste Meanwhile a smaller NZ force supported US forces against the Japanese in the Solomons and New Guinea 1942-44 Fully illustrated with specially commissioned colour plates this is the story of the Second New Zealand Expeditionary Force's vital contribution to Allied victory in World War II The New Zealand Expeditionary Force in World War I Wayne Stack, 2011-10-20 The New Zealand Expeditionary Force earned an elite reputation on the Western Front In World War I and the New Zealanders war effort was a defining moment in their national history The statistics are astonishing of the total population of New Zealand of 1 million no fewer than 100 000 men enlisted and of those 18 000 were killed and 58 000 wounded In other words 15 percent of the male population of New Zealand became casualties Famously the NZEF was first committed at Gallipoli in 1915 but NZ cavalry regiments also helped defend Egypt and fought in Palestine with Allenby's famous Desert Mounted Corps On the Western Front the Kiwis were called the Silent Division for their fieldcraft and their uncomplaining professionalism This book is both a tribute and a history of the contribution made by a small nation The Great War and the British Empire Michael Walsh, Andrekos

Varnava, 2016-11-25 In 1914 almost one quarter of the earth's surface was British When the empire and its allies went to war in 1914 against the Central Powers history's first global conflict was inevitable It is the social and cultural reactions to that war and within those distant often overlooked societies which is the focus of this volume From Singapore to Australia Cyprus to Ireland India to Iraq and around the rest of the British imperial world further complexities and interlocking themes are addressed offering new perspectives on imperial and colonial history and theory as well as art music photography propaganda education pacifism gender class race and diplomacy at the end of the pax Britannica Echoes of Gallipoli Lieutenant-Colonel Terry Kinloch MNZM, 2015-07-27 The battles on Gallipoli in 1915 were crucial in making New Zealand

the nation it is today The huge sacrifice of life has affected the country for generations and our annual formal remembrances on Anzac Day have become increasingly important It is twenty years since the full story of Gallipoli was last told in book form Now a new book will add significantly to our understanding of the events of 1915 on the Gallipoli peninsula Terry Kinloch tells the story with the help of members of the New Zealand Mounted Rifles Brigade who emerged from Gallipoli battered and depleted but with reputations enhanced He has thoroughly researched their letters and diaries and cleverly interspersed their eyewitness comments into his text The result is a book that reads with the immediacy of actually being there It is a fresh way of telling history and one that is sure to find a response among New Zealanders today The full story is here the call up the sea journey camp in Egypt the eventual arrival in Gallipoli all the battles and skirmishes that were fought there and finally the remarkable evacuation several months later

The Great War, 1914-1945 :: The peoples' experience Peter Liddle, 2001

Politics of Forgetting Martyn Brown, 2019-04-24 Greece was a poor country in turmoil and pain during the 1940s A military dictatorship was followed by invasion and terrifying occupation by Germany and its allies starvation civil war political unrest and mutiny in its free military armed forces New Zealand entered this arena and found a bond with a people that it still celebrates to this day Absent from the New Zealand national storytelling is the complex divisive and sometimes violent and surreal relationship between the two countries and the inescapable influence of Britain The New Zealand Greek story stretches from the mountains and open country of Greece and Crete to Middle East deserts autumn swept plains of Italy and the blood splattered streets of post liberated Athens New Zealand official state memory emphasizes some things and ignores the unpalatable It also conceals its assertiveness with Britain over the latter's Greek policies
