Scattering Of Seeds:

Scattering Seeds Stephen Chapin Garner, 2010-01-27 In Scattering Seeds Cultivating Church Vitality Stephen Chapin Garner and Jerry Thornell share the story of their home congregation the United Church of Christ in Norwell MA This average congregation has approached congregational life in a not so average way Each congregant is seen as a minister bringing the good news of Christ to the community the church has moved away from boards and committees instead utilizing the people to form ministry teams and they have revitalized the way they approach and practice worship and education Garner and Thornell don't claim to have the secret to church growth and vitality but in sharing the story of their simple church in New England they give hope and innovative ideas to congregations in regions all over the country A

Scattering of Seeds Annabelle Glesenkamp, 2001 Scattering Seed in Teaching Brian G. Pickerd, 2016-02-02 Jesus calls each of us to live in a way that gives the Father glory shares his love with everyone around us and reflects the life of Jesus He invites us to scatter seed Scattering seed can be a challenge though especially in our public lives our professional lives and volunteer lives Those of us called to teach in some way feel the challenge deeply We seek to share knowledge experiences and life lessons with a broad and varied group of people and do it in a way that shares Christ's love Often life curriculum challenges and student chemistry threaten to derail our best laid plans When this happens it's easy to be distracted from our purpose or even to forget that our life calling is the same as our calling to teach Scattering Seed in Teaching is about returning to that call or perhaps connecting with it for the first time It shares stories interviews and observations of teachers and students learning about scattering seed It connects with biblical reminders and encourages us as teachers to reflect on and remember that underlying our professional call to teach is our life call they are one and the same to scatter seed Seed Dispersers: Poop, Fur, and Other Ways Animals Scatter Seeds Emma
