white elementary school she desegregated Hu nh C ng t s photograph of nine year old Phan Thi Kim Phuc fleeing a South Vietnamese napalm bombing These iconic images with their juxtaposition of the innocent in the sense of not culpable figure of the child and the guilty perpetrators of violence both structural and interpersonal are arresting The power of the image of the child to arrest the spectator to demand a response from her has given the representation of children a central place in the history of visual culture for social reform This book analyses a range of forms and genres from social reform documentary through feature films and onto small and mobile media to address two core questions What difference does it make to the message who the producer is and How has the place of children and youth changed in visual public culture The Private
