The Use of Scripture in the Apocryphon of John David Creech,2017-08-01 David Creech explores at length the Apocryphon of John's ambivalent treatment of the Jewish and Christian scriptures Although Moses is explicitly corrected at five points in the text Genesis account of creation is nonetheless the basis for the Apocryphon's cosmogony and anthropogony Its uneven treatment of the biblical text is the result of a dispute between the authors of the Apocryphon and other early

Catholics At the earliest stage of the text the Christians who wrote and read the Apocryphon worshiped alongside other early catholic Christians without any sense of contradiction or inconsistency The key shift in the Apocryphon occurred after Irenaeus of Lyons assault on Knowledge Falsely So Called In response to his concerted effort to bring the church under the authority of early catholic bishops the framers inserted corrections to Moses The corrections are primarily rhetorical and used to refute early catholic identity markers
