Scharoun Germanys Most Extraordinary Exprebionist Architect:

Hans Scharoun and China Liyang Ding, 2024-11-15 This book presents the first systematic overview and analysis of the deep connection between Scharoun and China offering insights into East West cultural exchange and enriching existing understandings of modernism The German architect Hans Scharoun has typically been pigeonholed as a leading figure in expressionist architecture As this book shows however this understanding oversimplifies the multifaceted nature of Scharoun s career and overlooks his central role within the tradition of Neues Bauen The book begins with Scharoun s early interactions with East Asian architects in the 1930s his active involvement in the Chinese Werkbund 1941 42 and his extensive research on Chinese architecture and urban culture in the mid 1940s and 1950s The book then examines Scharoun s postwar architectural designs and urban planning projects most notably the Kollektivplan the Volksschule Darmstadt and the Berliner Philharmonie which incorporated original spatial and urbanistic concepts such as Stadtlandschaft Raum der Mitte and aperspectival space inspired to varying degrees by Chinese architectural and urban planning traditions The book will appeal to scholars and students of modern architecture urban planning and architectural theory especially those interested in modernism and East West cultural exchange Hans Scharoun, 1893-1972 Eberhard Syring, Jörg C. Kirschenmann, 2004 This text studies the architecture of Hans Scharoun It provides an analysis of his career until his death in 1972 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 A balance of sophistication and clarity in the writing authoritative entries and strong cross referencing that links architects and structures to entries on the history and theory of the profession make this an especially useful source on a century of the world s most notable architecture The contents feature major architects firms and professional issues buildings styles and sites the architecture of cities and countries critics and historians construction materials and planning topics schools movements and stylistic and theoretical terms Entries include well selected bibliographies and illustrations Reference that rocks American Libraries May 2005 Managing Energy Use in Modern Buildings Bernard Flaman, Chandler McCoy, 2021-07-05 This timely volume brings together case studies that address the urgent need to manage energy use and improve thermal comfort in modern buildings while preserving their historic significance and character This collection of ten case studies addresses the issues surrounding the improvement of energy consumption and thermal comfort in modern buildings built between 1928 and 1969 and offers valuable lessons for other structures facing similar issues These buildings international in scope and diverse in type style and size range from the Shulman House a small residence in Los Angeles to the TD Bank Tower a skyscraper complex in Toronto and from the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation a cultural venue in Lisbon to the Van Nelle Factory in Rotterdam now an office building Showing ingenuity and sensitivity the case studies consider improvements to such systems as heating cooling lighting ventilation and controls They provide examples that demonstrate best practices in conservation and show ways to reduce carbon footprints minimize impacts to historic materials and features and introduce renewable energy sources in compliance with energy codes and green building rating systems The Conserving Modern Heritage series launched in 2019 is written by architects engineers conservators scholars and allied professionals The books in this series provide well vetted case studies that address the challenges of conserving twentieth century heritage A Field Guide to Landmarks of Modern

Architecture in Europe Miriam F. Stimpson,1985 Modern Buildings in Britain Owen Hatherley,2022-04-07 The definitive illustrated guide to modern British architecture from one of the most acclaimed critics at work today Modernism is now a century old and its consequences are all around us built into our everyday lived environments Its place in Britain s history is fiercely contested and its role in our future is the subject of ongoing controversy but modernist buildings have undoubtedly changed our cities politics and identity forever In Modern Buildings in Britain Owen Hatherley applauds the ambition and explores the significance of this most divisive of architectures travelling from Aberystwyth to Aberdeen from St Ives to Shetland in search of our most important and distinctive modern buildings Drawing on hundreds of examples we learn how the concrete of Brutalism embodies post war civic principles how corporate values were expressed in the glass fa ades of the International Style and why Ecomodernist experimentation is often consigned to the geographic fringes As Hatherley considers the social political and cultural value of these structures a number of which are threatened by demolition two linked questions emerge what happens to a building after it has been lived in and what becomes of an idea when its time has passed With more than six hundred pages of trenchantly opinionated often witty analysis and with three hundred photographs in duotone and colour Modern Buildings in Britain is a landmark contribution to the history of British architecture The Architectural Review ,1996 German Architecture for a Mass Audience Kathleen

James-Chakraborty,2002-09-06 This book vividly illustrates the ways in which buildings designed by many of Germany s most celebrated twentieth century architects were embedded in widely held beliefs about the power of architecture to influence society German Architecture for a Mass Audience also demonstrates the way in which these modernist ideas have been challenged and transformed most recently in the rebuilding of central Berlin Who's who in Architecture James Maude Richards,1977 Who s who in architecture is the long awaited comprehensive guide to architects from the early Renaissance to the present the book provides over 500 entries arranged alphabetically for easy reference irrespective of chronology or geography Major architects are covered at length by a leading specialist or scholar of the period Site and Sound Victoria Newhouse,2012-04-10 Victoria Newhouse noted author and architectural historian addresses the aesthetics and acoustics in concert halls and opera houses of the past present and future in this stunning companion to the highly regarded Towards a New Museum Site and Sound explores the daunting perennial question Does the music serve the space or the other way around Heavily illustrated throughout with historic images spectacular color photographs detailed drawings this volume is an informed and enjoyable presentation of a building type that is at the heart of cities small and large Newhouse starts with a survey of venues from ancient Greek and Roman times and progresses to contemporary works around the world She singles out Lincoln Center in particular for its long history and its transitions and remodelings over the years Two major chapters cover the present one focuses on recent work in the West including the National Opera House of Norway in Oslo by Snhetta 2008 the Casa da Musica in Porto Portugal by Rem Koolhaas 2005 and many more the second examines the boom in concert halls in China A final chapter looks at projects that are currently planned and the future of an architecture for music The Architects' Journal ,1999 Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel,2016-01-23 Architecture for the Future Jean-François Gonthier,1996 Talented architects throughout the world are engaged in designing and building our future and this book illustrates some projects Appended biographies of all the architects involved provide an excellent reference tool

Modern Religious Architecture in Germany, Ireland and Beyond Lisa Godson,Kathleen James-Chakraborty,2019-03-07 Modernity and religion are not mutually exclusive Setting German and Irish church synagogue and mosque architecture side by side over the last century highlights the place for the celebration of the new within faiths whose appeal lies in part in the stability of belief they offer across time Inspired by radically modern German churches of the 1920s and 1930s this volume offers new insights into designers of all three types of sacred buildings working at home and abroad It offers new scholarship on the unknown phenomenon of mid century ecclesiastical architecture in sub Saharan Africa by Irish designers a critical appraisal of the overlooked Frank Lloyd Wright trained Andrew Devane and an analysis of accommodating difficult pasts and challenging futures with contemporary synagogue and mosque architecture in Germany With a focus on influence and processes alongside conservationists and historians it features critical insights by the designers of some of the most celebrated contemporary sacred buildings including Niall McLaughlin who writes on his multiple award winning Bishop Edward King Chapel and Amandus Sattler architect of the innovative Herz Jesu Kirche Munich Making Dystopia James Stevens Curl,2018-08-23 In Making Dystopia distinguished architectural historian James Stevens Curl tells the story of the advent of architectural Modernism in the aftermath of the First World War its protagonists and its astonishing almost global acceptance after 1945 He argues forcefully that the triumph of architectural Modernism in the second half of the twentieth century led to massive destruction the creation of alien urban landscapes and a huge waste of resources Moreover the coming of Modernism was not an inevitable seamless evolution as many have insisted but a massive unparalleled disruption that demanded a clean slate and the elimination of all ornament decoration and choice Tracing the effects of the Modernist revolution in architecture to the present Stevens Curl argues that with each passing year so called iconic architecture by supposed star architects has become more and more bizarre unsettling and expensive ignoring established contexts and proving to be stratospherically remote from the aspirations and needs of humanity In the elite world of contemporary architecture form increasingly follows finance and in a society in which the haves have more and more and the have nots are ever more marginalized he warns that contemporary architecture continues to stack up huge potential problems for the future as housing costs spiral out of control resources are squandered on architectural bling and society fractures This courageous passionate deeply researched and profoundly argued book should be read by everyone concerned with what is around us Its combative critique of the entire Modernist architectural project and its apologists will be highly controversial to many But it contains salutary warnings that we ignore at our peril And it asks awkward questions to which answers are long overdue Germany in the Loud Twentieth Century Florence Feiereisen,Alexandra Merley Hill,2012

This book introduces German Sound Studies using a transdisciplinary approach It invites readers to auralize space by describing characteristically German soundscapes in the long twentieth century including the noisy city of the early 1900s the sounds of East and West Germany and hip hop soundscapes of the millennium Modern Architecture and

Expressionism Dennis Sharp,1966 Architecture, Politics, and Identity in Divided Berlin Emily Pugh,2014-03-21 On August 13 1961 under the cover of darkness East German authorities sealed the border between East and West Berlin using a hastily constructed barbed wire fence Over the next twenty eight years of the Cold War the Berlin Wall grew to become an ever present physical and psychological divider in this capital city and a powerful symbol of Cold War tensions Similarly stark polarities arose in nearly every aspect of public and private life including the built environment In Architecture Politics and Identity in Divided Berlin Emily Pugh provides an original comparative analysis of selected works of architecture and urban planning in both halves of Berlin during the Wall era revealing the importance of these structures to the formation of political cultural and social identities Pugh uncovers the roles played by organizations such as the Foundation for Prussian Cultural Heritage and the Building Academy in conveying the political narrative of their respective states through constructed spaces She also provides an overview of earlier notable architectural works to show the precursors for design aesthetics in Berlin at large and considers projects in the post Wall period to demonstrate the ongoing effects of the Cold War Overall Pugh offers a compelling case study of a divided city poised between powerful contending political and ideological forces and she highlights the effort expended by each side to influence public opinion in Europe and around the World through the manipulation of the built environment The Oxford Companion to Architecture: K-Z Patrick Goode,Stanford

Anderson,Colin St. John Wilson,2009 1 500 A Z entries cover all aspects of architecture from architects building types and movements and styles to materials aspects of design and definitions The Companion offers complete coverage of architecture from around the world giving equal weight to architecture in Asia Africa the Middle East and South America as to the more familiar examples from Western Europe and the United States and of both modern and vernacular architecture It covers all periods from the beginnings of architecture in ancient Egypt to the present day and yet is strongly rooted in an approach to architecture that looks at its social technical and practical aspects beyond an art historical perspective from publisher description
