Readings in Oriental Literature

Jalal Uddin Khan, 2015-02-05 Readings in Oriental Literature Arabian Indian and Islamic is an up to date elucidation of some diverse and discrete yet common and classic subjects and authors and the distinctive oriental elements present in them. The book composed of fourteen essays includes ancient Arabian poetry the Arabian Nights the Arabian desert the Arabian influence on Melville Shelley's Orientalia Coleridge's Kubla Khan the influence of English Romantics on the Bengali Tagore Bangladesh's national anthem and her exiled daughter Taslima Nasreen the Victorian reaction to British India religious diversity and Islam in the West the Muslim East in English literature and reading literature from an Islamic point of view. Marked by an originality of approach and a freshness and simplicity the book takes note of contemporary theoretical interdisciplinary and cultural discourse drawn from literature history politics and religion as necessary. However it is far from being unnecessarily weighed down by the loaded clichés oft repeated jargon and overused euphemisms of modern literary or critical theory. The result is regardless of its specialized treatment of otherwise commonplace or well known texts or topics that the overall discussion is as lucid introductory and expository as it is deep and scholarly making the book accessible and
