went in search of approval from his parents Just as he has craved the approval of his peers That fateful Oscar took so long in coming Defining appreciating contextualizing and understanding the films of Spielberg is a tall order Their simplicity is deceptive You have to cut through the glow the adoration the simple joy that comes with their embrace and get to the thrust of the filmmaking Sourcing the inspirations locating the critical nuance the nurtured performance and the recurrent theme so many of his films have become timeless this book celebrates all this and more Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 2004-03 The American War in Viet Nam Susan Lyn Eastman, 2024-01-12 We have been waiting for a book on war and memory about the American War in Vietnam both about the Americans and the Vietnamese in the new century of the Desert Wars of Afghanistan and Iraq Susan Lyn Eastman has fulfilled that expectation and she has done so with a study impressive in its range of topical issues texts and commentary Philip D Beidler Margaret and William Going Professor of English University of Alabama After more than four decades the Viet Nam War continues to haunt our national memory culture politics and military actions In this probing interdisciplinary study Susan Lyn Eastman examines a range of cultural productions from memorials and poetry to cinematic and fictional narratives that have tried to grapple with the psychic afterlife of traumatic violence resulting from the ill fated conflict in Southeast Asia Underpinning the book is the notion of prosthetic memory which involves memories acquired by those with no direct experience of the war such as readers and filmgoers Prosthetic memories Eastman argues refuse to relegate the war to the forgotten past and challenge the authenticity of experience thus ensuring its continued relevance to debates over America's self conception specifically her coinage of the New Vietnam Syndrome and the country's role in world affairs when it comes to contemporary military interventions With the notable exception of the Veterans Memorial in Washington Eastman's focus is on works produced from the Persian Gulf War 1990-91 through the post 9/11 War on Terror She looks not only at American representations of the war from movies like Randall Wallace's We Were Soldiers to poems by W D Ehrhart Yusef Komunyakaa and others but also at novels by Vietnamese authors Bao Ninh and Huong Thu Duong The experiences of women figure prominently in the book Eastman devotes a chapter to the Vietnam Women's Memorial and another to Sandie Frazier's novel I Married Vietnam and Oliver Stone's film Heaven and Earth based on memoirs by Le Ly Hayslip And by examining Jessica Hagedorn's Dream Jungle a novel inspired by the filming of Apocalypse Now she considers how the war's repercussions were felt in other countries in this case the Philippines Her investigation of Vietnamese American authors Lan Cao Andrew Lam and GB Tran adds a transnational dimension to the study SUSAN LYN EASTMAN teaches in the Department of English at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga A Heritage of Hypocrisy Holliston Perni, 2005-10 In the dark says since the attack on the World Trade Center the question that many Americans have asked is Why Why do they hate us as they do Is it as our leaders would have us believe because they hate our freedom To understand what others find objectionable in us we must take a long and brutally honest view of how we act versus what we like to say about ourselves The facts as this book demonstrates are incontrovertible Our history is an unbroken progression of atrocities betrayals of trust and abuses of the rule of law both to our global neighbors as well as our own citizens Since the arrival of the first settlers we have cheated and swindled committed the most sweeping genocide in history 100 000 000 members of the indigenous populations attacked civilian populations with nuclear weapons promoted conflicts at home and abroad supported brutal right wing regimes bullied those weaker than us and performed gruesome experiments on the most defenseless of our own citizens poor southern blacks retarded teens and pregnant women These sadly are the facts and are what others see when we say our proud slogans about peace and promoting democracy But who among us is actually responsible for this ignominious state of affairs As Perni argues all of these iniquities can be traced to three sources big business fundamentalist right wing Christians whom he characterizes as our own domestic Taliban and a corrupt government that serves the corporations while manipulating the easily swayed voters Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New International Record Review , 2005 Billboard , 1994-06-25 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Reporting Genocide David Patrick, 2017-12-13 The Western world's responses to genocide have been slow unwieldy and sometimes unfit for purpose So argues David Patrick in this essential new contribution to the aid and intervention debate While the UK and US have historically been committed to the ideals of human rights freedom and equality their actual material reactions are more usually dictated by geopolitical noise pre conceived ideas of worth and the media attention spans of individual elected leaders Utilizing a wide ranging quantitative analysis of media reporting across the globe Patrick argues that an over reliance on the Holocaust as the framing device we use to try and come to terms with such horrors can lead to slow responses misinterpretation and category errors in both Rwanda and Bosnia much energy was expended trying to ascertain whether these regions qualified for genocide status The Reporting of Genocide demonstrates how such tragedies are reduced to stereotypes in the media framed in terms of innocent victims and brutal oppressors which can over simplify the situation on the ground This in turn can lead to mixed and inadequate responses from governments Reporting on Genocide also seeks to address how responses to genocides across the globe can be improved and will be essential reading for policy makers and for scholars of genocide and the media The Bookseller , 1920
