Education in Nazi Germany Lisa Pine, 2010-12-01 Shaping the minds of the future generation was pivotal to the Nazi regime in order to ensure the continuing success of the Third Reich Through the curriculum the elite schools and youth groups the Third Reich waged a war for the minds of the young Hitler understood the importance of education in creating self identity inculcating national pride promoting racial purity and building loyalty The author examines how Nazism took shape in the classroom via school textbook policy physical education and lessons on Nationalist Socialist heroes and anti-Semitism Offering a compelling new analysis of Nazi educational policy this book brings to the forefront an often overlooked aspect of the Third Reich Unproduction Studies and the American Film Industry James Fenwick, 2021-08-09 This book makes the case for unproduction studies the study of films left unmade unseen or unreleased as a radical discipline with the potential to uncover a shadow history of the American film industry Exploring the archival methods that can be utilised in this endeavour James Fenwick argues that a revisionist history is needed to understand the logic of the film industry finding that it has long been predicated on a system of unmade creativity in which finances resources and labour is invested into projects that production companies know will never be produced or have no intention of ever producing Using the Production Code Administration PCA records housed at the Margaret Herrick Library as a case study the book explores the material existence of the unmade and considers how archives and archival methods can be used to construct a shadow history that recovers the forgotten marginalised and overlooked figures in film history providing explanations for structural forces that contributed to the unmade Given its unique use of the unmade as an analytic for film history this book will be an essential read for scholars interested in film and media history performance studies film production and creative practice as well as to archivists and archival researchers School, 1924 A Light in the Darkness Albert Marrin, 2019-09-10 From National Book Award Finalist Albert Marrin comes the moving story of Janusz Korczak the heroic Polish Jewish doctor who devoted his life to children perishing with them in the Holocaust Janusz Korczak was more than a good doctor He was a hero The Dr Spock of his day he established orphanages run on his principle of honoring children and shared his ideas with the public in

Trapped in a Corrupt School District Angelo Morelli, PhD,2022-03-21 Born and mostly educated in Italy at a young age I immigrated to Quebec Canada where I taught Latin to French speaking high school students Then I earned a Ph D degree in French and Latin at the University of Ontario My dream came true when in 1967 I entered the USA as French instructor at a college in central Kansas and later at the University of Tennessee Alas due to the declining enrollment in the foreign languages at the University three years later I lost my untenured job Next being just a part time French instructor in a catholic college I took a full time teaching job in the public school district of Fairview a medium sized town in the Appalachian Plateau I taught French and Latin to high school freshmen There I was appreciated by everybody and three years later I was granted tenure With the advent of a new school superintendent Tom Jones in 1980 the tide suddenly turned He advocated that the school district did not need a teacher with a Ph D degree and most of all that as a European I was unqualified to teach in his American schools He decided that I had to go Unable to find a legitimate reason to get rid of me he started building a termination case for gross inefficiency For that purpose Jones replaced my honest principal with Frank Grossman an awkward and loyal bootlicker who had no knowledge of French and Latin For four years Grossman made my life extremely miserable He sat in my classroom almost fifty times and if so to speak I taught that planet Earth is round he documented that I said it is square Yet nothing could justify my dismissal In spring 1982 Jones indefinitely laid off 67 untenured teachers for alleged financial problems I was the only tenured teacher among them Later the school board ordered to rehire all 67 teachers because the lay off was unjustified Yet Jones refused to rehire me Finally he made me ransom my tenured job by making me drop a couple of pending grievances Exasperated by his repeated failures to get rid of me Jones announced in the local news that I was the poorest teacher in the school district and that he had no choice but to let me go To achieve his resolve he had Grossman triple the efforts to fabricate as much negative documentation as possible Grossman even used a few teachers students parents and substitute teachers to support his efforts To further mortify and disgrace me he had me sit in other teachers classroom to learn how to teach French and Latin in America He ordered me to take additional college classes to qualify to teach those languages at the first year level Two school administrators and three outsiders were hired to sit in my classes and prepare negative reports None of them knew French and Latin I became a laughing stock in the entire school district The maltreatment became so callous that my doctor placed me on sick leave for 30 days because of an acute anxiety syndrome After four years of relentless and undignified torment in March 1984 Supt Jones had his rubber stamp school board fire me for alleged inability to teach French and Latin even at the first year level Even my foreign accent and my alleged European way of teaching were given as termination grounds Yes my sick leave was also used to claim that I was physically unable to teach Since previously I had been a successful teacher in catholic schools Jones had the insolence to advise that I should seek employment in catholic schools as if those were inferior This book describes the incredible despicable and appalling persecution mistreatment and humiliation I endured in that school district run by a corrupt superintendent and his accomplices It is a shocking case of ignorance bigotry and malice

Notice Although the events described in this book took place decades ago they are still etched in my memory I decided to recount them in this book as a personal healing and to warn teachers that such things can truly happen The New Era in Home and School ,1939 The Tokugawa World Gary P. Leupp,De-min Tao,2021-09-20 With over 60 contributions The Tokugawa World presents the latest scholarship on early modern Japan from an international team of specialists in a volume that is unmatched in its breadth and scope In its early modern period under the Tokugawa shoguns Japan was a world apart For over two centuries the shogun s subjects were forbidden to travel abroad and few outsiders were admitted Yet in this period Japan evolved as a nascent capitalist society that could rapidly adjust to its incorporation into the world system after its forced opening in the 1850s The Tokugawa World demonstrates how Japan s early modern society took shape and evolved a world of low and high cultures comic books and Confucian academies soba restaurants and imperial music recitals rigid enforcement of social hierarchy yet also ongoing resistance to class oppression A world of outcasts puppeteers herbal doctors samurai officials businesswomen scientists scholars blind lutenists peasant rebels tea masters sumo wrestlers and wage workers Covering a variety of features of the Tokugawa world including the physical landscape economy art and literature religion and thought and education and science this volume is essential reading for all students and scholars of early modern Japan Prairie Farmer ,1852 Parley's Common School History, Revised Samuel Griswold Goodrich,1860 School Consolidation and Rural Life ,1922
